State Voting Finals

School Money, City Offices Are Big Issues

By The Associated Press

Two whopping school bond proposals—in Springfield and St. Louis County—were rejected in Tuesday's special elections but voters in other Missouri communities generally were more generous with school money.

Two whopping school bond proposals—in Springfield and St. Louis County—were rejected in Tuesday's special elections but voters in other Missouri communities generally were more generous with school money.

Kirkville passed a $975,000 issue that was twice defeated in 1956 and got a drop in its school levy at the same time. Clayton voted to spend a half million dollars on its school building program.

Springfield turned down the first school bond proposition in its history—a 14 million dollar issue to build two new elementary schools and additions to other school buildings. The city had voted $6,820,000 for school building programs since 1953.

The margin also killed a $1,200,000 issue in the Maplewood-Richmond Heights election in St. Louis County. The proposal, for improvement of the senior high and elementary schools, got 133 votes for and 721 against.

Among bond issues rejected was $376,000 for five improvement projects at St. Charles and $35,000 for schools in Trenton District R-3.

School levy raises passed in a number of communities including Springfield, Joplin, Cameron, Fulton, Columbia, Hannibal, New London, Eldon and Camden.

At Palmyra, voters turned down a 60 cent increase which would have brought the school levy to $2.10. As a result the levy will be only $1.00, the maximum a school district is allowed to collect without voter approval.

Kirkville had laid aside $220,000 for a new school building.

Knob Noster Council Must Decide on Tie Vote for Alderman

In an aldermanic election, non-partisan, at Knob Noster Tuesday in a newly established ward designated as Number 3, the vote brought a tie, 14 to 14, between Kelley Neitzert and Charles Henderson. Charles Judd received four votes. It will be up to the city council for decision as to who is to serve on the board of aldermen as a result of the tie.

In the other two wards results were: Milton Kendrick, 39, Delmar Thompson, 15, in Ward 1. Ward 2, unexpired term for one year, Earl Turner, 52, Lowell Bybee, 7, Robert Swearingen, 15; two-year term Henry Drinkwater, 28, Teddy Zink 36, Bert Saults 13; two-year term Ward 3, Fred McAllister 20, Dan Everts 12, G. O. Engle 1.

For school directors for three-year terms, Jack Young and Boyd Suiter were elected, Young having 69 votes and Suiter 71.

The school levy carried by a vote of 65 to 1.

At Tuesday Meeting

Youth Presented Optimists Cage Sportsmanship Trophy

Fletcher Gravitt, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gravitt, 316 West Henry, was presented the sportsmanship plaque Tuesday noon at the Optimist Club meeting at Bothwell Hotel. This is a coveted honor that goes each year to the boy in the Optimist sponsored basketball league of eight teams, showing the best sportsmanship at all times.

Fletcher, who is a member of the Sedalia Democrat team, is in the seventh grade at Hubbard School, and is the only Negro boy in the entire league. Usually a boy of 12 has difficulty in holding his own against the bigger boys in basketball, but, in addition to being a good sportsman he is also a good player. He made 31 points in one game which is the most points made in any one game by any player during the year. Fletcher is an all around athlete, going in for baseball, football and track and is also a swimmer. The trophy was presented by Stanton Hudson Jr.

The honor of good sportsmanship includes an opportunity to attend Camp Opto, Kansas City, sponsored by the Optimist for boys in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

The winning team of the Optimist League basketball tournament was Phillips "66" team, of which the coach Tom Herrick who was presented the trophy for the team by Dr. Kenneth Holdren. Co-captains of the team were Charles Patterson and Ralph Kreisel, with Stan Younce, Butch Walker, Alan Miller, Jerry Ray, Kim Iman and Dale Herrick as members of the team.

Trophies were also presented to the second place winner, the Se-

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower asked Congress today for an extra $1,455,747,000 in defense appropriations, mainly to acquire B52 bombers and build more missile-firing submarines.

His request was in the form of a memorandum to the House Appropriations Committee asking for an increase of that amount in the defense budget for the year starting July 1. If granted, this would boost fiscal 1959 defense appropriations beyond 40 billion dollars.

Of the amount requested, 218 million would be for the Army, 180 million for outer space research programs, 206½ million to build two additional Polaris-firing submarines, and 518½ million to build more big bombers and plane refueling tankers.

The Army's allotment would be used mainly to speed up missile programs. A large share of the Navy's money would be for anti-submarine warfare programs.

Bagby Loses By 724 Votes

Republicans Net 3 Council Seats, Democrats Take One

Abe Silverman, running independently on the Citizens ticket for the office of mayor of Sedalia, defeated incumbent Julian H. Bagby, Democrat, and Republican Aaron Haller in Tuesday's election.

Silverman polled 3,294 votes, while Bagby received 2,570 and Haller 1,580. That gave Silverman a margin over his nearest opponent of 724 votes. There are 360 absentee ballots which will not be counted for several days, but they will make no difference in the outcome.

Since Silverman had no other candidates on his ticket, he will inherit the split-ticket winners in the contest between the two parties—a Republican chief of police, Ralph Hamlin, who defeated incumbent Edgar Neighbors, three out of a possible four Republican Councilmen and a Democrat collector, city attorney, police judge, assessor and treasurer.

The three Republican winners of seats on the City Council are: Paul Hausam, first ward; Harold Vogel, third ward; and Clyde Swafford, fourth ward. The lone Democrat holdout on the Council was Roland "Doc" Snavely, who defeated Leroy Iuchs, 1,027 to 710.

City Collector Paul Alpert and City Attorney James E. Durley, seeking re-election on the Democratic ticket, had no opposition and were assured of their jobs from the start.

The other Democrats elected Tuesday were: Tom Keating as police judge; John Blue, incumbent, as city assessor; and Mrs. Leo Robb as city treasurer.

In the race for Councilmen, Hausam defeated incumbent Harry Moore 1,022 to 772; Vogel defeated Dr. Ira White, 1,036 to 886; and Swafford defeated incumbent Carlton Kelley, 1,018 to 805.

Alpert received 5,059 votes, while Durley received 4,947.

In the other contests, Keating received 4,133, while Republican Maj. John M. Drenan got 3,042; Blue netted 4,094 against 3,096 for Mrs. L. E. Sheridan, Republican; and Mrs. Robb defeated Mrs. Fred G. Rose 4,053 to 3,147.

The two offices which apparently received the most public interest were those for the mayoralty and the position of police chief. Mayor Bagby carried the second ward, while Silverman took the other three, Haller trailing in every case. Haller carried but one precinct, the first precinct of the first ward, receiving 55 votes to Bagby's 34.

W. E. Pace was elected first ward alderman over Hubert Stone for two years by 39 to 20.

In the second ward Ira Williams had 47 votes to Cecil Buchholz 17.

In the reorganized school district, for director for three years, Marvin Shouten had 98 and Clay Curtis 71.

John Earl Farris received 85 votes to Richard Gottschalk's 84 for director in the city schools.

The school levy of $1.40 on the $100 assessed valuation was passed 102 to 56.

School Board Elects Benner As President

The Sedalia board of education Tuesday night elected Forrest Benner president and Charles Hurtt secretary, and re-elected Ed Kehde vice-president and Miss Juanita Berry, treasurer. Hurtt and Ed Kehde were re-elected to the board in Tuesday's general election. Hurtt received 5,325 votes and Kehde 4,708.

The board also officially canvassed the election returns.

Outstanding Player Is Larry Callis

Hughesville Happy Helpers Awarded Play Festival Trophy

The winning play of the 31st Pettis County Dramatics Festival presented Monday and Tuesday nights was the 30-minute comedy by the Hughesville Happy Helpers 4-H Club, "Listen, Dad" (by Donald Payton). This is the second year for this club to win the trophy in the festival.

The outstanding player of the festival was Larry Callis, who played the Mr. Hanna in the winning play. Second place winner was Janice Ratje as Harriet in "Along Came Harriet" presented by the Striped College 4-H Club, and the third place winner was Mrs. Jody Reine, as Stella Brewster, a spinster who loves children, in the Tanglebrook Extension Club comedy, "Two Old Maids and a Tub".

Honorable mention went to Margaret Bohon as Doris Gaylord in "Along Came Harriet" by the Striped College 4-H Club; Wanda Williams as Bobby Sox in the play "Listen, Dad" by the Hughesville Happy Helpers and to Jeanie Scott, as Judith, the wife, in "The Forgotten Man" by the Smithton community.

Plays receiving blue ribbons were: "Along Came Harriet" by the Striped College 4-H Club; "Listen, Dad" by the Hughesville Happy Helpers; and "The Forgotten Man" by the Smithton community. Plays receiving red ribbons were: "Where's That Report Card?" by the Quisenberry 4-H Club; "Kid Sister" by the Flat Creek 4-H Club; and "Two Old Maids and a Tub" by the Tanglebrook Extension Club.

The following were named by the judges, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hopkins for the best acting in each play: Johnny Mergen as Junior in "Where's That Report Card" by the Quisenberry 4-H Club; Janice Ratje in "Along Came Harriet" by the Striped College 4-H Club; Larry Callis as Mr. Hanna in the Hughesville Happy Helpers 4-H Club's play, "Listen Dad"; Bill Ball as William Allen in "Kid Sister" by the Flat Creek 4-H Club; Mrs. Jody Reine as Stella Brewster in "Two Old Maids and a Tub" and Dewey Hoehns as Peter, the janitor, in "The Forgotten Man" by the Smithton community.

The first of the two plays presented Tuesday night was "Two Old Maids and a Tub" by Wm. F. Hines and given by the Tanglebrook Extension Club, and was a comedy where Stella Brewster, a spinster who loves children, played by Mrs. Jody Reine, always wanted to give a baby a bath. Her sister, Emma Brewster, who loved lectures, was played by Mrs. Joe Waters. Robert, the baby, was left by his mother, Mrs. Carrol, who lived upstairs, with Stella Brewster, who decided to give the baby a bath while she had a chance and enlisted the help of her sister. The baby's bath was interrupted twice and the baby taken to the kitchen, first when the nosey Mrs. Mosier, played by Mrs. Clarence Williams, called, and again when the Rev. Snodgrass, played by C. H. Williams, paid a

In Varner Trial

Defense Quizzes Patrolman On State's Ballistic Testing

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The defense hammered away today at the state's ballistic evidence in the first degree murder trial of Victor I. (Tex) Varner.

The 50-year-old riding ranch operator is on trial for the murder of a rival ranch operator near Osage Beach.

The defense questioned Lt. John F. Williams, Missouri State High Patrol officer, closely as to how he made the tests of bullets fired from a rifle which the state has linked with the slaying last July of Edwin Boyesen, 47.

William F. Berry Jr., chief defense counsel, spent most of the morning trying to show that Williams had not given sufficient consideration to what he termed "discrepancies" found in the ballistic tests.

The attorney brought out that the cartridges used for the test firings were not of the same make as the ones found near the bodies of Boyesen and Larry Irwin, his 15-year-old helper near the Lake of the Ozarks State Park.

Williams, the first witness called on the third day of the trial reiterated that two of Varner's finger prints from the right hand were found on the rifle, which Varner said had been stolen before the slayings.

The officer said he could not tell how long the fingerprints had been on the gun. The weapon was found last January 28 by brush cutters, about a half a mile from the scene of the slayings.

On cross examinations, Williams replied in the affirmative when asked by Berry if he would not expect to find on the gun the fingerprints of the man who owned the weapon.

Varner, who operated a rival riding stable, also faces a first degree murder charge in the slaying of Larry Dale Irwin, 15 years old. That trial is scheduled to be held later. Varner got a change of venue on both trials from Miller County where the slayings occurred.

State witnesses including two highway patrolmen, testified Varner had made threats to get even with Boyesen for fence cutting.

Sgt. J. E. Seeley of the Highway Patrol testified Varner had related to him how he had laid in waiting for Boyesen hoping to catch him cutting fences and throwing up barbed wire entanglements on riding paths.

Trooper L. P. Rolls said Varner told him that if he ever caught the fence cutter he wouldn't bother to call Rolls, he would just call the undertaker.

The bodies of Boyesen and Irwin were found near Varner's riding trail last July 6. Marjorie Roberts, who divorced Boyesen 15 years ago, has testified she had been on the gun. The weapon was

Easter's Untold Stories

Pilate's Wife Claudia Detected Faith As Helpless Bystander to Execution

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a four-part series on the little-known actors in the Easter story, derived in part from non-canonical Christian books and from oral tradition recorded after a passage of years.

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

She jerked awake and sat up in bed, her eyes wide and terrified. The dream still churned in her mind, and she still could hear the mad howling. . . almost as if it real!

With a sweep of her arms, Claudia Procula yanked the netting from around her canopied bed, and called out for her slaves. Oh gods, she murmured, oh invisible fates.

The maids came running, bringing trays of fruit, but she waved the food aside and ordered them to dress her at once. She clasped the tiny icon of Juno at her breast, breathing a supplication.

Outside on the lithostrotos, she could hear the taut rise and fall of voices parleying, and at intervals, the mass growl of a mob. A grim, fearful noise it was, as if issuing from the throat of a single, mindless creature.

The horror of her nightmare swept her again, and perspiration misted her body. She spun away from the wardrobe maids, knocking the sash about her stola herself.

She hurried down the corridor toward the open platform of the praetorium. The sentries at the archway saluted, slapping arms to chest, at her approach. Claudia halted, just inside the portal, listening.

"We found this man perverting our nation. . . saying that He is Christ a King!" The voice was stern, disdainful. "Let Him be crucified!" Then came Pilate's voice, querulous, evasive, and intermittently, that inhuman crowd sound.

Frightening Resemblance

A little moan escaped Claudia's lips, and she suddenly felt weak. The vision of her troubled sleep flooded her anew, and she retreated toward her rooms. So they, too, wanted blood.

The circumstances had a horrible resemblance to the fantasies of her night. Without doubt, the spirits of Hesperides or furies of the abyss had brought her this message, this warning. It was as if the very stars had spoken.

Just as in her dream, her husband sat before the multitude—only it had been in an amphitheater, yes, that was it, an arena as big as the circus at Rome—and a heroic man was at the stake. A nightmare swarm of eyes had glinted all around, while a whole world roared for death.

She had been there, too, at Pilate's side in the box, and a red-orange glow, mixed with black, filled the atmosphere, while images of her imperial ancestors glided by, the Caesars, across the dark sea of screaming faces. Release the beasts!

And then, . . . Claudia clasped a hand to her eyes, her throat quivering. Oh heavenly sisters, or guardian shade of Nona. It was up to Pilate now, just as in the dream, to give the word. Only he had the authority.

At a loss for what to do, Claudia summoned a garrison officer, questioning him about the case being heard by Pilate. He confirmed, as she feared, that the man was Jesus of Galilee, of whom she had heard marvelous things.

CLAUDIA

He had been seized secretly last night, the officer said, by a joint military-civil detachment, and arraigned at once before the native Sanhedrin, which condemned Him for religious sedition, or something of the sort.

It was a rather tumultuous session, the officer went on, with the high priest ripping his clothes and shouting "blasphemy!" at the culprit, after haranguing Him into saying something about being the "Son of God."

Purposeful Prisoner

That finished Him, and He knew it, yet He seemed to do it on purpose. The officer paused, knitting his brow. . . ah well.

Just then, a burst of sound slammed through the corridor, "Crucify him!"

Claudia stood motionless, the color drained from her face. Finally, she caught her breath and dismissed the officer. She sagged into a chair. What could she do? How stop it?

Her husband was a hard, callous man, scornful of all religions. The only powers he recognized were arms, craft and ambition. The son of slaves! He'd never even have his governorship, except for his marriage to her, a descendant of Augustus.

But he showed no gratitude for that. Claudia sat wringing her hands.

A little later she learned with a brief surge of hope that Pilate had sent the prisoner to be judged by Herod of Galilee, also here for the Passover. But her relief soon was shattered. Herod obviously had declined. The stir outside resumed and she detected a rustle of activity down a side passage in Pilate's council chambers.

She rose abruptly and stole a look through the portieres. She saw Jesus brought in. His arms and neck bleeding from the gage-lum.

Her heart seemed to stop. Pilate had obviously had Him flogged. She slipped along the passage, knowing she could not interfere, but unable to stay away. She heard her husband's sarcastic question, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

The reply was strained, but firm. "My kingship is not of this world. . . ." Then Pilate, amused "So you are a king?" the other spoke slowly, wearily, "For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth."

Pilate chuckled sagely. "What is truth?"

Nightmare Returns

Although she could not see the man, Claudia could see again the tumult of her dream. Her thoughts whirling, she returned again to her room, and dropped on a couch beside the table. She picked up a feather quill and dipped it in the ink, hesitating.

The nightmare rose before her, the face of the doomed, the crowd, the death cries, the memory of Pilate jabbing his thumb downward, and instead of beasts, it was a flame springing out at the faggots piled in the arena about the Great One.

Then she had felt herself caught up in a wild wave of humanity, herself and her husband, too, his eyes glazed and unseeing, hurled into a trampling mob, a death frenzy of men and women, dark figures, crazed, tangle-haired, toothless.

But the doomed man mystifyingly had grown larger, his stature rising above the teeming multitude, and he had spread his arms over them all, and she had seen the face, the kind, wise face of the Galilean, pitying and sorrowing above the world's turmoil.

The pen shook in Claudia's hand as she touched it to the parchment. "Have nothing to do with that righteous man," she wrote, "for I have suffered much over Him today in a dream." She folded it, and sent a servant with it to Pilate.

It was all she could do.

But she knew Pilate, knew his vain temporizing, his expedient grasping to preserve his power, his brutality. He would stamp his seal on the grim verdict: Crucify the Christ.

As recorded in the ancient Acts of Pilate, "presumably taken later from his report in the archives of Rome, Claudia that day "neither ate nor drank," and for a long time, was "exceedingly grieved." Her husband remarked sardonically to some priests, "You know, my wife is a worshipper of God."

Norwegian Ship Burns With 1,000 Rescued

OSLO, Norway (AP)—A Norwegian immigrant ship with more than 1,000 persons aboard burned in the Indian Ocean off Africa's east coast last night. All aboard were rescued but one German passenger died in a lifeboat of a heart attack.

Capt. Alf Haakon Feste, skipper of the 8,786-ton Skaubryn, abandoned his ship after fire erupted in her engine room and got quickly out of control.

Gavin Says Humanity Benefits in H-Tests

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, who retired from the Army yesterday, says that entirely from a military point of view, it is in the interest of humanity to continue nuclear bomb tests.

Gavin, 51, former chief of Army research and development, had charged before a Senate Preparedness Committee that the Army's missile program had been held back deliberately.

Survival tomorrow lies in the test tubes of today, Gen. Gavin told a news conference after a retirement parade during which he reviewed the 82nd Airborne Division, his outfit of World War II. Because of his combat jumps, Gavin earned the nickname "Jumping General."

The ceremonies drew more than 20 high-ranking officers including Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, Army vice chief of staff, who pinned the Distinguished Service Medal on Gavin.

Man of the Year Gets Six Months Sentence

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Redwood City's Man of the Year in 1957 was sentenced in Superior Court yesterday to six months in the San Mateo County jail and two years probation for grand theft.

Judge Edmund Scott sentenced Howard R. Griffiths, 33-year-old insurance agent, after he was convicted of stealing $1,250 from his former employers.

Judge Scott dismissed eight counts of forgery against Griffiths, who was accused of submitting some $13,000 worth of false claims while district agent for the State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co.

Griffiths, former president of the Redwood City Exchange Club, had been honored by a civic organization as Redwood City's most outstanding man in 1957.

(an Easter message from West Side Variety)

Somehow or other
Our Faith in God and mankind is always revitalized
at EASTER TIME . . .

When we are reminded that the Higher Power granted His only Son permission to trod this earth; experience troubles and temptations like we mortals encounter — yes, even death . . . we feel more humble. With humility is born the feeling of a new sense of security. With this strengthening of our faith, the prospects of tomorrow seem brighter — our load is easier to shoulder.

A troubled humanity is again hungry to hear the joyous ringing of church bells Easter morn.

Ann Fletcher Becomes Bride Of J. E. Lee

In a beautiful and impressive candlelight ceremony Miss Margaret Ann Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Fletcher, Columbus, Miss., and Thomas Franklin Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwin Lee, Poplarville, Miss., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, March 15, at the First Methodist Church in Columbus. The church was lighted with myriad white cathedral candles in floor candelabra and ornamented with palms and floor baskets of exquisite Easter lilies.

The bride is a cousin of Miss Frances Traylor and Mr. and Mrs. William Schien. Mr. and Mrs. Schien attended the ceremony and several parties for the honored couple. She is a granddaughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Fletcher, Sedalia.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was a wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace and taffeta with a full swept court train. The sculptured lace bodice was designed with long tapering sleeves and a portrait neckline edged with re-embroidered lace trimmed with seed pearls. The full skirt featured wide panels of Chantilly lace tapering as they extended toward the waist. Her fingertip length imported illusion veil fell from a lace crown decorated with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a rosepoint lace handkerchief carried by her grandmother in her wedding. Her bouquet was a cascade of Easter lilies.

Honor attendants were her sister, Miss Emily Jane Fletcher, maid of honor, and Mrs. Thomas Lee Willets, State College, Miss., matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Jo Puckett, Miss Sylvia Hunter, Mrs. Richard Humphreys and Mrs. James Tucker. All attendants wore identical dresses of changeable green and gold taffeta, fashioned sheath style in front with high neckline, extending into a low cowl in the back above bustle bows at the waistline. The back accent was noted in the fullness of the skirts below the bustle bows. The attendants wore small hats of matching taffeta with circular veils and carried crescent shaped bouquets of yellow roses.

John Edwin Lee Jr., Pascagoula, Miss., served as his brother's best man. David Lee and Robert Lee, Poplarville, Miss., brothers of the groom, Dr. Fayette Williams Jr. and Bailey Williams, Corinth, Miss., cousins of the bride, Albert Weeks, Pascagoula, Miss., and Thomas McCann, Columbus, O., were groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fletcher wore a pale green taffeta and chiffon sheath dress with a hat trimmed with seed pearls and a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids. The mother of the bridegroom chose a beige lace dress and pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception held in the church parlors where the bridegroom chose a beige lace dress and pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bride chose as her going away costume a pale green wool suit with mink collar and matching hat. On their return from their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Pascagoula, Miss.

Following the reception Dr. and Mrs. Fayette Williams, Corinth, Miss., aunt and uncle of the bride, gave a formal dinner at Gilmer Hotel for relatives and out-of-town

Sorority Members Help Buena Vista Ladies Select Hats

Saturday was a big day for the residents of Buena Vista. In connection with the regular monthly birthday party given by members of Epsilon Beta, Beta Sigma Phi, several members took boxes of spring hats, donated by the members, to the homes for the ladies to select an Easter bonnet. Several dozen ties were also taken out for the men to select one from. After the ladies had tried on hats, selected one and then eventually trading with one another until they were satisfied the afternoon was concluded with the sorority members singing religious hymns. Refreshments of decorated Easter cookies and fruit juice were served by Mrs. Raymond Harmon and Miss Mildred Sutherland. Others attending were Mrs. Richard Flippen, president, Mrs. Clayton Wear and Mrs. Rick Fullerton.

Mrs. Ray Conn Reviews Book for Circle Five

Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. A. R. Trublood, of Circle No. 5, First Christian Church, met with Mrs. J. L. Hillenburgh, 422 East Fifth, Mrs. Charles Carlin, Mrs. Ray Conn and Mrs. Charles Evans were the hostesses.

Mrs. Hillenburgh presided over the meeting. A collection was taken to buy articles for the Japanese children, who with their parents are migrating to Brazil to work. Mrs. Luther Landis gave the devotion.

Mrs. John Gilbert introduced Mrs. Ray Conn, who reviewed the book, "This is Japan."

The next meeting will be April 17 at the church.

Loose Cattle Stampede After Crossing Crash

EL DORADO, Kan. (AP)—An impromptu rodeo developed in El Dorado's business district last night, with all available policemen and about 2,000 residents taking part.

A Santa Fe freight train and a truck hauling 22 yearling cattle collided at a downtown crossing. The impact spun the truck into a parked car and both vehicles crashed through the front of a store.

The cattle got loose and stampeded through the business district. A big crowd gathered and finally rounded up all the cattle. The truck driver, William Rosenkranz, 65, Moline, Kan., was not hurt seriously.

Cuban Rebel Strikers In TV Station

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ten Cuban rebel sympathizers continued a hunger strike today. Twenty-two others were out on bond after an anti-Batista demonstration at a Miami railroad station.

The hunger strikers are camped in the lobby of television station WTVJ. The management said they may stay as long as they are orderly.

Two of them fainted last night, a station spokesman said, but appeared to recover satisfactorily. He did not know their names.

The hunger strike will continue, the Cubans said, until 36 other rebel supporters are released from jail at Brownsville, Tex., where they are held on charges of arms-running. The Texas group also is on a hunger strike.

At Brownsville, Tex., 22 Cuban rebel sympathizers neared the end of a week of hunger striking at the county jail, and 14 others were being fed intravenously at a hospital.

They were arrested by U.S. officials Thursday after Coast Guard vessels captured their converted fishing boat in the Gulf of Mexico. They were charged with conspiracy to violate the U.S. Neutrality Act.

The railroad demonstration here was a protest against the departure of a Cuban government delegation, bound for Washington to seek arms to put down any revolt against the regime of President Fulgencio Batista.

Police Sgt. Kenneth Fox reported between 75 and 100 Cubans showed up at the station "waiting to attack" the delegation. The 22 arrested said they would refuse to eat in jail. They all posted $100 bonds on disorderly conduct charges and were released without missing a meal, however.

In another development, a cache of more than 900 hand grenades was found in a Biscayne Boulevard office by sheriff's deputies. Sheriff Thomas J. Kelly said the office was rented to two rebel sympathizers already in jail in connection with discovery last week of 600 sticks of dynamite in an apartment.

Japanese Claim US Is Driving Away Fish

TOKYO (AP)—A fishermen's delegation complained today that American military training areas off the Chiba Peninsula, immediately east of Tokyo, are driving away their sardine, bonito and mackerel catches.

The fishermen petitioned Japanese government agencies to abolish the training areas. They said four such already exist and the U.S. military has notified them it will establish a fifth soon, for aircraft antisubmarine exercises.

Cardinal's Funeral Service in Italy

ROME (AP)—Funeral services were held at Rome's Basilica of St. Eugene today for Alessandro Cardinal Verde, 93-year-old member of the College of Cardinals.

Cardinal Verde, archpriest of the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome, died Saturday night after a long illness. Ten cardinals, other high prelates of the Roman Catholic Church and diplomatic representatives to the Vatican attended the services.

Cardinal Verde's death brought the number of vacancies in the College of Cardinals to 14. Its full complement is 70.

Spain May Release Southern Morocco

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Spain has agreed in secret talks to turn over to Morocco the 15,000-square-mile Spanish protectorate of Southern Morocco, a Spanish Embassy spokesman said.

The almost barren area of desert nomads has been in dispute between the two nations since Morocco won freedom from France in 1956 and Spain then handed over her protectorate in Northern Morocco.

Foreign Ministers Fernando Maria Castiella of Spain and Ahmed Balafout of Morocco agreed to formal transfer April 10.

Elvis Gets Same Treatment as Others

Convention Time Arrives With Wives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Convention time has come again to Los Angeles. But pedestrians need not take warning.

A look around this popular convention city indicates the bag-of-water-out-the-window days have past. There's a new force at work on the department of visiting big-wigs.

The force: something called wives.

"Time was when a wife hated to see her husband go to a convention," said one hotel official. "They thought he was sneaking out of town just to live it up. But now they don't worry."

"They come along." Conventions here between April and October will attract more than 230,000 says the Chamber of Commerce. The proportion of accompanying wives will be high.

Flood Danger Threat Grows in California

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Danger of floods in sections of California appeared increasing today as more precipitation added to the already recent heavy falls of rain and snow.

Across the continent, the stormy weather which hammered the Northeast Coast appeared diminishing. However, strong winds and some rain continued during the night near the New England coast.

In other parts of the country, wide areas of precipitation were reported in the Western two thirds but mostly clear skies and warmer temperatures were indicated in the Eastern third.

Some 900 residents of Alviso, Calif., 35 miles southeast of San Francisco, were forced from their homes by floodwaters of the Guadalupe River. Eight rivers on the California coast were bankful

Throws Brick at Dog; Gets Damage Suit

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—James Candy, 40, paid $530 in a damage suit for throwing a brick at a dog for tearing up his lawn.

Municipal Judge Charles Fisher awarded Vance $30 for the medical bill and $500 in punitive damages.

Harold Vance, owner of the 5-year-old sheepdog, put her on the witness stand as mute testimony she had lost the sight of one eye.

The judge told Candy stonily: "I cannot understand how a man can take a brick and throw it with such force at this little dog. It is most fortunate, sir, that you are not before me on a criminal charge."

Teenage Auto Driver Gets Some Backing

CHICAGO (AP)—Two Illinois officials, including Gov. William G. Stratton, have come to the defense of the teen-age auto driver.

A heated debate about the teen-age driver was held yesterday at a conference of midwestern safety leaders, sponsored by the President's Committee for Traffic Safety.

"What can we do about the irresponsible school kids, the smart aleck drivers?" an unidentified questioner asked. "They shouldn't be given drivers licenses until they're old enough to vote."

"Don't judge an entire age group by the misconduct of a small minority," Stratton replied.

Charles F. Carpentier, Illinois secretary of state, cited records of his drivers' license department which he said show that the dangerous age, with the highest accident and conviction records, is from 20 to 35.

In other business at the opening day's meeting of the two-day conference attended by 1,400 delegates from 14 states, representatives of six states called for more state police for enforcement of traffic laws. They included Claude R. McCammett, safety director for the Kansas Highway Commission.

States represented at the conference are Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Teacher Punched By Suspended Student

NEW YORK (AP)—Curtis Tait, a 17-year-old suspended pupil, returned to Samuel Gompers Vocational High School in the Bronx yesterday and punched a teacher in the eye, police said.

The teacher, Frank Keegan, 52, told police he was struck after ordering Tait to leave his auto mechanics class. The teacher said Tait had disrupted the class by shining his shoes with a school towel and engaging other pupils in conversation.

Tait was arrested on an assault charge and held in $1,000 bail for trial.

He was suspended last week for allegedly tampering with lockers in the school building. He was ordered to report daily to the school pending a hearing. Tait is Negro, Keegan white.

Students in Local Area Take Part in Music Contest at CMSC

Music as an important high school activity was seen in the interest shown by 750 participants in the district music festival contests for soloists at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, last week. More than 70 high schools in the twenty-one counties served by the college had entrants in the auditions before twelve judges to determine ratings and scholarship winners.

Nearly 5,000 musicians competed in band, orchestra and ensemble competition Friday and Saturday.

Students who received 1 ratings are eligible to compete in the state finals and receive scholarship considerations from the Central Missouri State College.

Green Challenges Mid-East Policy Of Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Green (D-RI) challenged the administration today to "correct some of its past mistakes" in the Middle East by trying to get along with Egypt's President Nasser.

At the same time, Green suggested the United States be prepared to provide aid to Nasser's new United Arab Republic to replace assistance Nasser gets from the Soviet Union.

Green, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said it seems clear to him it is desirable to get along with the Egyptian leader "whether or not we like that prospect" although "it should be made clear to him that we do not like his brand of imperialism any better than any other brand."

In a speech prepared for the 11th annual conference of the Association of International Relations Clubs, Green said there is no way of knowing whether Nasser would reject U. S. overtures. But, he said, the Egyptian leader may be responsive if they are made.

Criticizing U. S. Middle East diplomacy, Green said a year after the adoption of the Eisenhower resolution to help Middle East nations resist Communist aggression, the United States has no real Middle East policy at all.

It has not prevented, or even impeded the Communist economic offensive in the Middle East," he said.

Berkeley to Annex St. Louis Airport

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The town of Berkeley (Pop. 5,000) voted to grab the St. Louis Municipal Airport right from under the big city's nose yesterday.

Mayor Raymond Tucker of St. Louis called the move "nothing but bold tax grab" and said this city would take the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary.

Berkeley voters cast 1,933 votes to annex the 1,400-acre airport property and 333 against the proposition.

A Berkeley official estimated in a report to the City Council that the town's tax rate could be cut by one-half by the annexation.

The airport was in an unincorporated area.

Lutherans Will Have Communion Thursday

The Rev. David Funk, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, will administer the Sacrament of Holy Communion on Holy Thursday at 7:45 p.m. in observance of the origin of this sacrament with Christ and His Disciples.

The pastor's sermon will be, "Christ Died for Me." The pastor has urged all Lutherans in Sedalia to be present. The preparatory with confession and absolution will be observed in this service.

READY AND WAITING—Two twin batteries of the super-sonic beam-riding Terrier missiles stand ready for launching on the afterdeck of the U.S. cruiser Canberra. The Terrier, the Navy's first operational missile, is designed to intercept enemy aircraft, regardless of darkness or bad weather, before the enemy can attack U.S. fleet elements. The Terrier is 15 feet long and weighs 1,100 pounds. It has a four-foot wingspan. With booster attached, the missile has a ceiling of more than 50,000 feet. Seventeen Navy ships will be outfitted with the Terriers, which can also be launched from mobile trailers for use by ground forces.

Musical Diet Makes Under Nourished Race

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—"A rock 'n' roll diet is making an under-nourished race out of millions of teenagers," says the president of the New Jersey Farm Bureau.

Herbert W. Voorhees told a Rotary Club meeting that soda pop, "hot dogs and soggy potato chips continue to be the favorite lunch-eaten among millions of high school crowd."

Voorhees, a member of President Eisenhower's Citizens Advisory Committee on the Fitness of American Youth, added:

"It's no wonder we find our boys making poor showing in physical exams for Army service and scores of our teen-age mothers seriously affected with childbirth complications because of malnutrition."

No Cherry Blossoms For Easter Either

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's famed cherry blossoms, which didn't make it in time for last week's Cherry Blossom Festival, won't be around for Easter either. Capital park horticulturists say full blooms aren't expected for at least 10 more days.

Attends Course On Atomic Fires

The City of Sedalia fire department was represented at the recent first school on "Radiation Hazards in Fire Fighting" held in St. Louis. Capt. George Smethers of Station No. 2 attended the four-day session.

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Wed., April 2, 1958 5

Louis Fire Department, jointly sponsored the school.

It was the first school held in Missouri and AEC officials considered it essential that a number of Missouri firemen qualify as instructors to spread their knowledge throughout the state's fire fighting personnel, according to W. Bush Walden, University of Missouri firemanship instructor.

Through the school it was pointed out that many industrial plants, hospitals, and health centers are now acquiring apparatus of high radio-active potential which could be extremely hazardous in case of fire or other disaster which would expose people to its rays.

Besides fire department representatives from throughout the state several large industries also had men in attendance at the school who will likewise train personnel in industry in connection with the fighting of the hazards.

Tossed Orange Causes Freak Truck Mishap

An orange thrown from a loaded school bus caused a freak accident resulting in severe injuries to a driver of a tractor-trailer unit on Highway 50 a mile east of LaMonte. The incident occurred about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Holly Graves, 50, of Claycomo, Mo., was driving one of the large Kroger tractors with a loaded trailer east on Highway 50, when he started to pass the school bus. A child tossed an orange out of the window, it splattered on the windshield of the truck in front of the driver and also shattered the glass.

Glass fragments struck Graves in his face and eyes. He was able to keep the tractor going straight and stopped without losing control of it and hitting the school bus.

There were 32 children on the bus from Hickman Mills, driven by Richard L. Harmon, also of Hickman Mills. None of the children would admit throwing the orange.

Trooper Robert Stockdell of the State Highway Patrol brought Graves to Sedalia and to Bothwell Hospital, where Dr. J. O. Ewert, eye specialist, removed the glass. He was later released to return to Hickman Mills, while a relief driver and tractor had to be sent to the scene to take over the cargo.

Trooper Stockdell said the ability of Graves to keep the truck under control probably saved the lives of several children.

Abe Silverman

by's 52 and Silverman's 20. In only one other did he lead Silverman, when he received 106 votes to the latter's 34 in the first precinct of the second ward. All told, Silverman won in 12 out of 16 precincts.

The victory by Hamlin was much closer, since his majority was 258, compared to Silverman's 754 over his nearest opponent. Neighbors carried the first and second ward. All told, he carried five precincts.

In the school board election, Charles Hurr and Ed Kehde were re-elected on a bipartisan ballot. Hurr receiving 5,325 votes and Kehde 4,708.

The continuation of the regular school levy was approved, $432 to $2,055.

Herb Studer, director of Federal Housing Administration in Kansas City and former Republican mayor of Sedalia, stated after the announcement of Silverman's election, "The election results represent a good healthy condition. The people of Sedalia are thinking and that is good. Abe Silverman is a fine man and will make Sedalia a good Mayor."

Studer whose home is at 906 South Barrett, was home for the election and to visit with his family.

Silverman said: "At this time I can't sufficiently express my thanks to the many citizens of Sedalia who have supported me in this election. I consider the fact that all parties conducted a clean and informative campaign one of the best signs that, now this election is over, we can all move forward in a spirit of cooperation for a greater Sedalia. I would also like to express my appreciation to those who actively assisted in my campaign."

The new mayor and other electees will take over their duties at the City Council meeting on the evening of April 21, when the old Council will adjourn sine die and the new Council will convene.

There still remains the task of counting the absentee ballots, which will be done later this week, probably on Friday, by two judges from each of the two parties. The judges are selected by the city chairmen.

Wet Days Predicted In Weather Picture

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The weatherman sees a series of wet days ahead for Missouri.

Showers or thunderstorms are expected to develop in the extreme west tonight and spread over most of the state Thursday.

The long-range forecast indicates more precipitation again Saturday and Sunday.

There will be little change in temperatures with lows in the lower 40s north to near 50 south tonight. Thursday's highs will be generally in the 60s.

Lowest reading in the state this morning was 37 at St. Joseph.

The body is at the Ewing Funeral Home where it will remain until the hour of the service.

House Passes Search, Seizure Bill Today

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri House today rejected a last ditch attempt to freeze a bill extending search and seizure powers to the State Highway Patrol and then passed it 93-36.

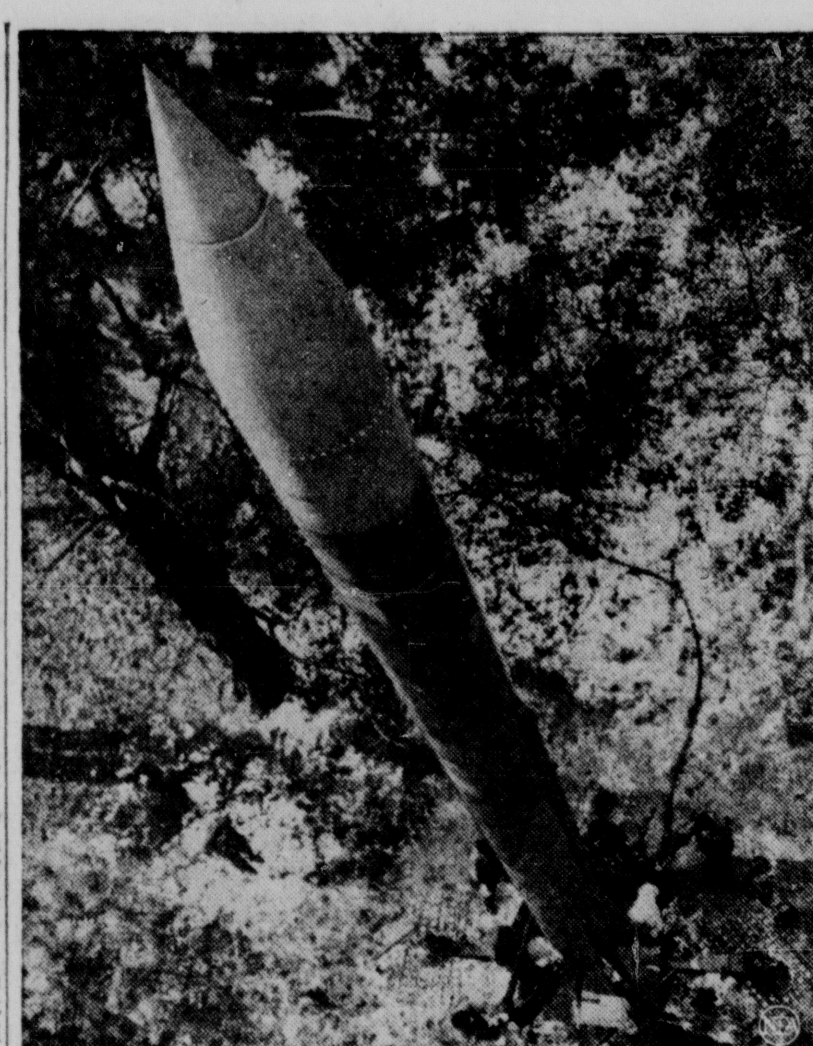

It now goes back to the Senate for consideration of House changes.

Rep. Ealum Bruffett (R) of Ozark County, who had tried several times to stymie the bill yesterday, this time recommended that the measure be sent back to the judiciary committee which had written it in the first place.

That motion was defeated on a 38-93 vote as members figured recommitment to committee this late in the session was the same as killing the bill.

Then the House passed the bill with Gov. James T. Blair on the sidelines watching action on his proposal.

• Fires In the City

Fire deliberately set in an alley doorway at the Sedalia Democrat plant did about $10 damages at 4:20 a.m. Wednesday.

Some papers which had been left in the doorway for a city carrier had been placed against the door and set on fire.

Officer Kenneth Tucker, who was walking the downtown beat, noticed an old model car drive out of the alley at a fast rate of speed. He started for the business area from which the car had been driven to investigate and found the fire in the doorway. Tucker then went to the telephone booth at Third and Ohio and when the phone failed to work, started to run to police headquarters.

In the meantime, a patrol car came along and he notified them. They in turn called police headquarters and placed the call for the fire companies, then hurried to the Democrat. The officers tried to knock apart the fire with their clubs until the trucks arrived.

Connections To Santiago Are Cut Off

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Fidel Castro's rebels cut off communications to Santiago today and his patrols clashed with government forces in other sectors in the war against President Fulgencio Batista.

Rebels clashed frequently with Batista's troops around Manzanillo and Bayamo. The army reported 16 rebels killed in the last 24 hours.

In Pinar del Rio province in western Cuba, rebels shot and wounded Pedro Acosta Cuni, secretary general of the transportation union, as he entered his home. A woman neighbor also was wounded.

Castro launched his offensive by stepping up attacks on transport and communications in Cuba's easternmost Oriente province, where his 16-month-old guerrilla was in strongest.

Communications continued to be normal outside Oriente. Havana businesses operated as usual. Batista's troops and police, on almost continuous alert for months, braced to meet the rebel threat.

Castro supporters said total war against Batista would be extended to the rest of Cuba after midnight Saturday, the rebel deadline for the President to quit.

Roving rebel bands cut telegraph lines to Santiago, fired upon transport moving in the area and spread oil and nails on the roads. Most bus and rail workers stopped work around Santiago and highways were almost deserted.

Rebels blew up eight high-voltage towers in the province and burned a Sinclair Oil Co. gasoline tank trailer. Clashes between government troops and rebels were reported near Santiago, Varadero and Holguin.

Man Involved In Accident Pays Again

John William Schroeder, who figured in a series of accidents in Sedalia and Pettis County last Friday night, appeared in Magistrate Court Wednesday morning on a charge of careless and imprudent driving. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Frank Armstrong.

Schroeder, 208 South Washington, was involved in an accident in which his car hit another car at Main and Ohio, then proceeded to hit another car while driving the wrong way on east second, according to police. The driver of the second car took the license number and informed the police of the incident.

A police patrol car gave chase in a race which ended up with the Schroeder car proceeding to North Highway 65, and running off the highway near the Bothwell Lodge. The car was demolished and Schroeder was taken to the police station, and the Highway Patrol was notified.

Schroeder was tried in police court Saturday morning, where he pleaded guilty to two charges of hit and run driving, and for driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverage. He was fined $100 on the two hit and run charges, and $75 on the DWI charge, for the offenses committed within the city limits.

The careless and imprudent driving charge as the result of offenses committed after the car left the city limits. Evidence heard in magistrate court indicated Schroeder had been drinking prior to the chase.

been living with him the last two years. She has said she saw the boy for the last time about 7:30 o'clock the night before the slaying.

She said they told her they were going on a fence inspecting trip. Mrs. Roberts' testimony brought out that there had been some ill feeling between Varner and Boyd sen after she had rented the boy's stable at the Lake of the Ozarks State Park near Osage Beach which had been run previously by Varner.

Varner later opened a rival stable nearby.

There was conflicting testimony about Boyson's abandoned car. Two witnesses said they had seen it on July 6 in the pasture where the bodies were discovered later in the day. The witnesses were Walter Summer, an Osage Beach Western clothing store owner, and Ned Brown, the park superintendent.

William Scott, an Osage Beach barbecue stand operator, said he had driven by the spot about 3:30 a.m. that morning and the car was not there then.

There was conflicting testimony about Boyson's abandoned car. Two witnesses said they had seen it on July 6 in the pasture where the bodies were discovered later in the day. The witnesses were Walter Summer, an Osage Beach Western clothing store owner, and Ned Brown, the park superintendent.

William Scott, an Osage Beach barbecue stand operator, said he had driven by the spot about 3:30 a.m. that morning and the car was not there then.

Boys have more common colds than girls until the age of 10, according to researchers.

House Quits Until After Easter Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House called it quits today until after Easter on appropriating the tax-payers' money to operate the government.

Unopposed passage of a $3,216,983,539 Agriculture Department financing bill hiked to $22,274,000,000 funds voted this year by the House in 10 appropriation measures.

This is almost 500 million dollars more than President Eisenhower requested, and some of the big bills are still to come.

Only four of the House-passed measures have cleared the Senate, which has slightly increased House-voted allotments.

All but four of the House bills are for operation of government agencies during the fiscal year starting July 1. Three of the four supplement funds appropriated for the present year, while one would give agencies authority to speed up their purchases by buying supplies this year which they originally had planned to purchase next year.

The Agriculture Department appropriation bill, $103,900,000 short of the amount requested by President Eisenhower, sped through the House without the customary acrimonious debate over administration farm policies.

The bill allots $1,456,588,653 to the department for its normal activities, proposes payment of $1,760,399,886 to the Commodity Credit Corp. for its farm price support and surplus disposal activities, and authorizes the Rural Electrification Administration and the Farmers Home Administration to make new loans up to $694 million for farm improvements.

World Trotters Wed For Second Time

NEW YORK (AP)—A British heiress and a shipping clerk, world-trotting elopers, were married here yesterday for the second time in two months.

Dominic Elwes, son of a British portrait painter, and the former Tessa Kennedy said they went through the second ceremony because their first marriage in Havana was in Spanish and they "couldn't understand a word of it."

The couple was married on Jan. 27 by a notary public in Cuba after traveling from Scotland to find an official who would perform the ceremony. The bride's father, Geoffrey Farrar Kennedy, had obtained a writ to prevent the marriage in England or Scotland on grounds that his daughter, 19, was too young.

Elwes, 26, told newsmen the Havana wedding was legal and binding. Justice Henry Clay Greenberg performed the second ceremony in his chambers in State Supreme Court.

Police Say Teenagers Beat Woman Teacher

DETROIT (AP)—Two teenage youths were sought by police today in the beating of a woman teacher at Denby High School.

Mrs. Ethel Tinscher, 45, said she was slugged in the face and stomach by the pair after she found them loitering in a hallway during class hours. She was treated at a hospital and released.

She said she did not think her attackers were students. She estimated their ages at about 18.

WHEN TWO FEET MAKE A YARD—Mark Grundman, of Vincennes, Ind., seems to be coming and going as he models a pair of giant-size shoes which were custom made by his grandfather, M. G. Grundman, for Franklin Ritchie of Centerville, Ind. The shoes, size 20 EE, measure 16½ by 5½ inches. It takes a big man to fill shoes like these, but Ritchie can do it. One of the biggest men in Indiana, he stands seven feet tall and weighs 385 pounds.

Army Finds It Best To Admit Mistakes

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Army's chief of information says security regulations are supposed to keep information from the enemy, not to conceal military mistakes.

Maj. Gen. Harry P. Storke, here on an inspection trip, told newsmen: "We have found the best policy today is to admit the mistakes made by the Army and give the public a clear explanation of what happened."

"The news is bound to leak out anyhow. We'd rather get our version out first than have it come back in a garbled version."

Burned Norwegian Ship Still Afloat

LONDON (AP)—The burned-out hulk of the Norwegian immigrant ship Skaubryn today was reported still afloat in the Indian Ocean off Africa.

The Skaubryn's 1,200 passengers and crew, including 209 children, are being taken to the British Red Sea port of Aden aboard the Italian liner Roma. They are due there tomorrow.

The 9,786-ton ship, en route to Australia with more than 1,000 migrants, burned Monday night after an engine-room explosion. Survivors were picked up by the British freighter City of Sydney, which transferred them to the Roma. There was only one casualty, a German passenger who died of a heart attack.

Antirecession Drive Slowed In GOP Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican brakes forced a slowdown today in a Democratic drive to rush action on antirecession measures before Congress starts a 10-day Easter vacation.

Postponed until the lawmakers return April 14 was Senate consideration of a bill to authorize a billion dollars for long-term, low-interest loans for local public works.

Senators Byrd (D-Va) and Lausche (D-Ohio) sided with the Republicans in favor of delaying action. Senators Cooper (R-Ky) and Revercomb (R-WVa) voted with the Democrats, who lost 41-39.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California took the initiative in the move after the matter was discussed at a White House conference of GOP leaders with President Eisenhower.

With the public works measure laid aside, the Senate agreed to take up today a compromise bill approved by the House to authorize future construction of 1½ billion dollars worth of water projects.

Housing, highways and government spending figured elsewhere in antirecession legislation, while outside Congress the Federal Reserve Board reported the first slight drop in total consumer installment credit since late 1954. Autos and major appliances led the decline.

A Senate-House conference committee reached agreement on a compromise highway construction speedup bill designed to provide thousands of new jobs to fight the recession.

Final action is scheduled in both the Senate and the House tomorrow. Kept in the bill, which carries an extra $1,800,000,000 of federal-state funds over present programs, was a hotly disputed provision for regulation of billboards along the 41,000-mile system of expressways.

Another bill intended to give the economy a lift, a $1,850,000,000 housing measure, was signed by Eisenhower despite his criticism of some features of it.

SKY PILOT—The Rev. Charles Lee, a Marine Corps flier in World War II, has now taken to the air for his church. The 34-year-old Congregational minister from Yankton, S.D., has been hedge-hopping across Great Plains states for two years.

Mission to Reopen After Racial Tangle

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The small Catholic mission of St. Cecilia's at nearby Jesuit Bend, scene of a racially tinted row more than two years ago, will reopen Sunday for Easter services. A white priest will say Mass.

The mission, about 20 miles south of New Orleans, was closed to a Negro priest, the Rev. Gerald Lewis, assigned there Oct. 2, 1955.

Archbishop Joseph F. Rummel said in a letter: "We cannot permit the closed chapel to stand forever as a symbol of resistance to the authority of the church."

Archbishop Rummel ordered a spiritual symbol of reparation and thanksgiving. It included three days of prayer during which the congregation is to attend Mass in the morning and other services during the day.

Clerk Dies After Battle With Boys

WOODWARD, Okla. (AP)—A clerk who was wounded Sunday when two youngsters riddled a Woodward grocery store with pistol fire died yesterday. Robert Smith, 12, and his brother David, 10, have been accused of the shootings.

A second murder charge was filed against Robert after Adrian Wilson, 22, died in a Woodward hospital. Robert also is charged with murder in the shooting of Wilson's employer Ralph Blair, 49.

Robert is in jail. David has been sent to a private boys' ranch.

Farm Leaders From Midwest To Hold Meet

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Agricultural leaders from throughout the Midwest and from Washington, D. C., agreed yesterday to hold a full-scale organization meeting here May 5 to set up a farmers' Hall of Fame.

Thirteen farm organizations and five land grant colleges sent representatives to yesterday's meeting. Dr. J. H. Longwell, director of the agricultural science division at the University of Missouri, said a hall of fame project could demonstrate agriculture's progress through the years.

A Duncan, Okla., farmer, Robert S. McClelland, said the small family farm is fading and the hall of fame could keep the public conscious of the dignity of farming. McClelland is program director of the National Assn. of Soil Conservation Districts.

Cost of the program has been tentatively set at one million dollars. A site is to be chosen by a committee that will be named in May.

Howard A. Cowden, head of the Consumer's Cooperative, was named temporary president of the group.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infect one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Builders See More Housing Construction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Builders and housing officials predicted today the $1,850,000,000 Housing Act will help push home construction, but emphasized it is no panacea for the business recession.

President Eisenhower signed the Democratic-sponsored bill with a demand that Congress quickly correct some provisions which, he said, conflict with the private enterprise system and "burden the public purse."

But the Federal Housing Administration sped orders to its field offices liberalizing down payments as the law permits. Some builders have notified FHA they were waiting to advertise the new terms to prospective home buyers.

The 3 per cent minimum down payment now applies to FHA-insured mortgages of up to $13,500, instead of $10,000. On mortgage sums above $13,500, the down payment remains at 15 per cent and, above $16,000, 20 per cent.

This means that a $14,000 dwelling, which FHA calls the "typical" new house, may be bought for $500 down instead of $900.

FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason said the lower down payment and the removal of discount controls would be "a boon to home buyers and the home building industry."

Mason did not mention the billion dollars earmarked to support the mortgage market. Congress added this fund as "an immediate stimulus to home construction." It was denounced by Eisenhower, who had asked only for 500 million dollars to be used at his discretion. He got the 500 million too.

The billion dollars is at the disposal of the Federal National Mortgage Assn. With this money and 200 million dollars released to FNMA a few weeks ago, that agency is able to tell lenders and builders they can go ahead with construction plans with the assurance the government will buy up any mortgages they choose to sell.

Some lesser officials predicted this would spur the industry in new selling efforts. One said privately it would provide builders and lenders with "an important reassurance that they can plan on bigger scale operations."

The National Assn. of Home Builders said the law could be of "tremendous benefit to moderate income families" who have been hampered by tight housing credit. The new law authorized Eisenhower to boost the GI interest rate from 4 1/2 per cent to 4 per cent. This, coupled with the decline in other interest rates, may cause lenders to look more favorably on veterans' housing loans.

Eisenhower criticized this provision on grounds that the rate should be more flexible—in other words, that he should be permitted to raise it higher if the situation warrants.

By failing to gear GI interest rates to market conditions and by requiring the government to buy such mortgages at par, the President said, "the legislation provides in effect for substituting one billion dollars of federal financing for financing by private investors."

US Misses Chance For Moral Leadership

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States missed a chance at world moral leadership by not unilaterally suspending nuclear tests, says Adlai E. Stevenson.

Asked about reports that the Soviets may suspend the tests on their own, Stevenson said such action "would deprive us, I'm sorry to say, of any shred of moral leadership in the matter." "Unhappily," he added, "it would even deprive us of the hope of taking advantage of the possibility of instituting a reciprocal inspection system."

As the Democratic candidate for president, Stevenson proposed in 1956 that the United States suspend tests unilaterally.

Interviewed on NBC-TV's Look Here, the former Illinois governor said that if the United States had followed his suggestion it would have "vastly increased, I believe, our moral influence and respect among the terrified bystanders, the nonnuclear powers."

Must Change Name To Inherit Estate

OMAHA (AP)—If he is willing to change his name, The Rev. Glen Victor Alt of Snyder, N.Y., can get the bulk of a $75,000 estate.

Norris P. Crafts of Omaha so provided in his will.

Crafts, a postal clerk who died March 24 at the age of 79, built his estate through real estate transactions, a close friend said when the will was filed for probate yesterday.

The will provides that Mr. Alt, a nephew of Crafts, will get the bulk of the estate if he willing to change his name to Crafts and if he has a son.

Crafts had no children and friends said he drew up his will requesting Mr. Alt to take the name Crafts so the name would be perpetuated.

Mr. Alt is given a year to decide whether he wants to accept the provisions. If he rejects the request he will receive an interest bearing $500 bond or $1,000 in cash, the same bequest made to a dozen other relatives of Crafts.

Missouri Elections

000 on a $1 levy for school improvements in 1955 and 1957. The money will be added to the $975,000 in bonds voted 1,901 to 642 Tuesday, but the school levy will drop to an estimated $2.55 from the current $3.

Robert Eddy defeated Maynard Durham, 2,157 to 1,231 for mayor of Carthage as Democrats won all 11 contests.

Neighboring Joplin elected five councilmen—Dr. Paul Thompson, C. C. Haynes, Lee Smith, Charles Miller and William Grdner. The school levy was raised 21 cents to $2.80.

The Fulton school district increased its levy 15 cents to $2.50 on a 606 to 394 vote. City candidates had no opposition and J. Frank Hensley was elected mayor.

Columbia tackled a 50 cent increase to its levy by a vote of 2,570 to 1,124 or 322 more than the required two-thirds margin. John Woodward and Dr. A. G. Unklebay were reelected school board members.

Rolla reelected Earl Hudgens in a three-man race. Also reelected was incumbent Police Judge Dough Harvey. The school levy was raised 5 cents to $2.85.

Bethany still had a race for west ward alderman as the polls closed. Incumbent Allen Linville led Carl Hunter, 124 to 123 and a single absentee ballot could change the result. The $1.30 school levy was extended two years.

Berkely, a St. Louis suburb, voted to annex the Lambert-St. Louis municipal airport despite St. Louis mayor Raymond Tucker's promise to go to court over the matter. Tucker called the annexation "nothing but a bold tax grab." A Berkeley official estimated the town's tax rate could be cut in half by annexing the 1,400 acre airport property in an unincorporated area. Voters approved the proposition 1,933 to 333.

Heated races for municipal offices in several communities lived up to what otherwise were pretty hum-drum elections.

At Brookfield, Olin Gates ran up more votes (1,157) for police chief than all other 5 candidates combined, including the incumbent chief, James Clark. The other candidates were the rest of Brookfield's 6-man force. Gates was chief for 10 years until Clark was appointed under the city manager plan in 1956. The city last June voted the plan out and the office became elective. Frank C. Peery, a former mayor in Linneus, Mo., was elected mayor, defeating five other candidates including Noah Skinner who has been acting as city manager in the caretaker government.

Other election results: Sedalia—Mayor Julian H. Bagby, a Democrat who had held office 15 years, was defeated for reelection by Abe Silverman, 40, running on a Citizens ticket in his first bid for elective office, 3,304 to 2,570. Republican Ralph Hamlin defeated Democrat Edgar Neighbors, who had been police chief for 10 years, 3,799 to 3,541. Republicans won three of the four councilman posts over Democratic incumbents.

Louisiana—Democrats won all city posts. Among those elected were Carl Penn, mayor; K. W. Lindsey, city marshal; Leland Green, Gaylord McDannold, Dude

REGIONAL TOUCH — The Thai pavilion, a synthesis of that nation's architecture and art, rises at Brussels World Fair site. It is in contrast with fair's futuristic motif.

Branstetter and Charles Sisson, city councilmen.

Libbourn—A two mill tax for upkeep of public parks passed 262 to 58. Jake Bixler was elected police judge over incumbent J. K. Driver, 160 to 140.

Oran—Dr. I. C. Mattingly won his fifth term as mayor, beating Paul Crader, 211 to 188. Elected city councilmen were Leo Inman, Odell Wrather, Herbert Brucker and G. K. Patterson.

Pleasant Hill — Community uproar over the expulsion of 11 boys from school for rowdiness deterred 4 of the 5 school board members from running. Board President M. R. Irwin got 589 votes, highest of the five candidates on the ballot. An Irwin supporter, Jesse W. Hayes, ran second with 560 votes.

New London and Vandalia — State Department of Education's board of arbitration will be called to solve a problem caused by elections in these two districts. New London voters overwhelmingly rejected a proposal to release three school districts in the southern part of the county that want to affiliate with the Vandalia consolidated district. Vandalia voted to accept the districts which lie between New London and Vandalia.

Boonville—Republicans swept 10 of 12 city offices, electing John J. Bell mayor and councilmen Harold Stretz, Joe Soph, Rudolph Gerhardt, Francis Stanfield and Fred N. Jones.

Eldon—A $2.10 levy for the R-1 school district, a 69 cent increase, was approved. Seven annexation proposals, to square the city limits, also passed.

Camdenton—Residents will vote April 15 for the fourth time on a $443,000 school bond issue. Approved Tuesday was annexation of a 110 acre subdivision and a 50 cent school levy bringing the total to $1.50.

St. Charles—The $376,000 bond issue for five improvement projects failed for lack of a two-thirds majority. Incumbent James Hamillon beat George Crawford in the only city council race.

Trenton—School district R-3 defeated a $35,000 bond proposal 90-45. Annexation of 132 acres was approved 636 to 119 and Grundy County residents voted 600 to 277 for a county library district and bookmobile. Trenton voted to join the district.

Hannibal—Loren Mills Jr., and

Roger Hibbard were reelected to 3-year school board terms. A 12-cent increase, bringing the school levy to $2.50 was approved 732 to 565.

Jefferson City—Voters approved, 1,066 to 262, the establishment of a land clearance authority to qualify for federal urban redevelopment funds.

Cartersville—Democrats won all races, electing a police judge and four councilmen.

Cameron—The school levy was increased 25 cents to $1.75. Kenneth Curtis, an incumbent, and A. B. Drinnan were elected to the school board. Walter Darby and James Pixlee won council seats in a 4-way race.

A Successful Take-Off

SWOO-O-O-SH!

Sedalia's Explorer I went into political orbit after forceful campaign rocket propellant streaked it to the zenith in Tuesday's city election.

That's Abe Silverman up there. He's the man who rose to mayoralty heights on the Citizens rocket leaving his Democrat and Republican opponents far behind.

Ralph Hamlin did some high flying, too, as Republican candidate for chief of police; so did Swafford, Hausam and Vogel for council.

The Democrats were supposed to have been charged with enough fuel to put on a spectacular satellite launching show without much competition—but only "Doc" Snively, for council, Blue for assessor, Mrs. Robb for treasurer, and Tom Keating for magistrate got off the ground.

So Sedalia faces the future with a city administration spiced with Republicans, Democrats and an Independent mayor. The Democrats have the edge on personnel in the council with 5 of their number and 3 Republicans. Aside from Hamlin, the Republican chief, Democrats still occupy the city offices which also include that of Collector Alpert and City Attorney Durley who had no opposition in the election.

Mayor Silverman's popularity was quite evidently expressed by over 3,300 Sedalia voters of both parties who crossed party lines to put the whammie to his opponents. Although Abe ran alone on a Citizens ticket he is an Independent Democrat.

That does not mean the new mayor is going to function as a partisan leader. His firm intention will be to consolidate the various elements of the two parties so that he can accomplish the program he has in mind for the city administration's primary role in the advancement of Sedalia.

The new mayor will encounter many perplexing situations with which any manager in private business copes each day. Among these will be the ability to make financial ends meet the burdens of insistent public pressure for more services at no increase in taxes. In this process the mayor must daily draw on his capacity to apply the proper techniques of executive control.

Mayor Silverman will assume the office of Mayor later this month to manage the city administration in his own personal way. He has stated he is under no obligation politically to anyone except the voters themselves. They will look to him for performance, but in the looking they should also give him continuous support if his mission is to be accomplished effectively during the next four years.

Although we did not support you, good luck Abe, we like you lots as do a host of others whose advice from time to time will be given you, if you invite it, and without expecting any political reward in return.

Benson Friend Opposes Slaughter Bill

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—When Aled Davies, lobbyist for the meat packers, stood at the bar in the National Press Club and boasted about his close friendship with Ezra Taft Benson, he didn't do himself much good. But he did do some good for the American public.

Bill McGaffin of the Chicago Daily News promptly wrote a story about Davies' boast even though Davies made big noises about having McGaffin bounced from the Press Club.

The farmers who look to Benson for support hadn't entirely realized before that Ezra is more the friend of the meat packer and big processor than he is of the dirt farmer. His close friend, Davies, for instance, is now lobbying against the O'Mahoney bill introduced by the senator from Wyoming to transfer antitrust jurisdiction over the meat packers to the Federal Trade Commission. O'Mahoney knows the housewife will get little protection from Benson's Agriculture Department, so he wants the Federal Trade Commission to act instead. Davies is opposing the transfer.

Davies is also the lobbyist working to stop the humane slaughter bill, already passed by the House of Representatives, thanks to Congresswoman Martha Griffiths of Michigan. This Bill would require hogs and steers to be given a quick dose of gas before they are hammered over the head in the packing houses. In some cases dazed steers, knocked on the head but not killed, go careening around the slaughterhouse before they are finally butchered.

Lobbyist Davies has been working with the Republican members of the Senate Agriculture Committee to hold extensive hearings on this bill even though hearings were held two years ago. So far Sen. Allen Ellender of Louisiana, chairman, has hung back on taking action.

Meanwhile, Secretary Benson is reported a bit hesitant about his earlier plan to appoint his friend Davies as a delegate to the British Food Fair Aug. 28 - Sept. 11 in London. Last year Davies went as a representative to the American Meat Institute, but this year Benson was planning to make him an official delegate of the Agriculture Department—until he got all the publicity over ghost-writing Benson's statement that he would not resign as Secretary of Agriculture.

Think It Through

—By E. F. Hutton

THE HOLE IN THE DOUGHNUT—Government taxes—and some day we'll fall off the roof!

The individual income tax produces one-half of all federal revenue, which is estimated at 72½ billion bucks for the current fiscal year. That's nice, isn't it? A fact not generally realized is that the great bulk of the revenue from this tax comes not from those with large incomes but from those with small and medium-sized incomes. This is so simply because the small and medium-sized incomes in the aggregate constitute most of the nation's income.

Now, Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer, get this into your brain buzzer. Eighty-four per cent of the revenue from this heck of a tax is produced by the first bracket rate of 20%. The rates above 50% produce (upon the basis of the calendar year 1955) about 700 million $'s, or 1% of the total federal government's revenue. By comparison, an increase of only 100 bucks in the present personal $600 exemption credit for dependents, would reduce by 7 millions the number of taxpayers and create a revenue loss of 2½ billions.

All of this is as clear as a hole in a doughnut. Taxes and inflation reduce the "goodies" in the doughnut. The "hole" is taxation and it gets bigger and bigger, and the "goodies" grow smaller. Uncle gets the "dough" and we are the nuts!

The World Today

H-Bomb Annihilation a Constant Reality

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—You are going to live—for a long, long time—in a world where both the United States and the Soviet Union hold in readiness hydrogen bombs that can blow each nation, and perhaps humanity, off the map.

That's the reality you face, so you can listen with one ear to the jockeying, the propaganda and the arguments now going on about stopping the tests of nuclear weapons.

That much is clear—although he didn't say it in so many words—from Secretary of State Dulles' news conference, one of the most revealing and productive conferences he's held in a long time.

This country suffered a propaganda defeat this week—and Dulles admitted it—when the Soviets announced they would stop testing nuclear weapons themselves.

This didn't have much practical meaning since they left themselves an out: they said they'd feel free to resume their tests if this country continued testing. Since this country will, no doubt the Soviets will.

And Dulles not only reaffirmed the American decisions to have nuclear tests this summer but indicated the United States was thinking of more tests.

He said this country has been willing to stop its tests as part of a program leading to the elimination of nuclear weapons but that the Soviets don't show any inclination to go that far.

The idea that this country would be willing by itself to get rid of its nuclear weapons—built up at enormous cost over many years—looks like a pipe-dream and for very realistic reasons:

So long as this country has hydrogen bombs that can destroy the Soviet Union, the Soviets will be reluctant to start a war of any kind. That's the biggest single deterrent to Soviet aggression this country has.

First, because it gives us an eternal perspective. We are living in a generation that has the swiftest news-gathering facilities of any period in history. We get news from every part of the world within a few moments after the event. Sometimes the news comes to us while it is still happening.

This is all to the good, because it keeps us alert and informed. However, it involves a peril also. The danger is that our feelings and our mood for the day will be determined each morning by the latest news flash over the radio or TV, or in the headlines of the press.

We need something more stable and enduring, if we are to have solidity of character. This enduring faith is found in the message of the church, which reminds us that we have an everlasting God with whom one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day.

Another reason for believing in the church is the freedom of its pulpit. There is no institution on earth that affords a freer platform than the rostrum of the Christian Church.

I have been a minister of the gospel for 40 years. In all that time no officer or member of my church has ever sought to suppress the liberty of the pulpit. You may think nothing of sufficient consequence was said from the pulpit to justify censorship. However, I have made many radical pronouncements on some of the most debatable issues of the century. My congregations have always respected the preacher's freedom to speak his deepest convictions. God forgive us if in this crucial time we remain silent on issues of such vast and far-reaching importance as war and peace, race relations, temperance, and our political and industrial affairs.

A final reason for believing in the church is that its fellowship is prophetic of what the fellowship of the kingdom of God on earth will be. Especially is this true of the ecumenical movement, as represented by the National and World Councils of Churches.

In the National Council of Churches we have working happily and cooperatively together 34 denominations of the Protestant and Orthodox churches, representing a constituency of nearly 38 million members.

This does not mean that we are striving for some great totalitarian ecclesiastical system. Such a monolithic structure we wish to avoid. Our aim is variety in unity and unity in variety—a cooperation fellowship in which each member church shall be free to follow its own doctrine and policy. The constitutions of the National and World Councils of Churches alike guarantee this respect for the sovereignty of each member denomination and local congregation. We have come together and intend to stay together.

This growing unity of the churches is one answer to the prayer of Jesus that his followers might be one. For some of us it is the greatest sign of hope on the horizon of a darkened and broken world.

Next: How to think of the hereafter.

But if this country agreed to eliminate its hydrogen weapons, communism with its enormous manpower—both in the Soviet Union and Red China—would have a huge advantage over the West.

So the question arises: Would any American government in its right mind give the Soviets such an advantage? Even if some manpower—both in the Soviet Union and Red China—would have a huge advantage over the West.

So the question arises: Would any American government in its right mind give the Soviets such an advantage? Even if some American administration wanted to do so, it's unlikely Congress would permit it.

Then Dulles explained why this country wants to go on testing: if nuclear weapons can't be eliminated altogether, then the United States wants to develop weapons which could destroy an enemy but be so refined that they would not destroy the rest of humanity by radioactive fallout.

This was his answer: "I just don't know what the program is in that respect, and it is quite a long way off before we could get to that, and I think that is a rather academic question at the moment."

"I assume we might retain some, but that will be a military decision, probably to be made maybe 5 or 10 years from now."

In other words: so far as this government can see into the future now it plans to keep the devastating hydrogen bombs. If we do, the Soviets will. They've shown no signs of doing otherwise.

Lenten Meditations

By DR. EDWIN T. DAHLBERG
President, National Council of Churches;
Pastor, Belmar Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo.

VII. WHY BELIEVE IN THE CHURCH

Ephesians 5:25, "Christ loved the church and gave himself for her."

All the institutions of our modern society must give a reason for their existence. The church is no exception. God is laying His plumb line alongside every wall of civilization to determine whether it shall stand or fall.

One reason for believing in the church is that as Paul wrote to the Ephesians, "Christ loved the church and gave himself for her." That should be a sufficient reason for the faith of any man.

However, there are reasons on the human level also why we should feel a great sense of confidence in the Christian church today.

First, because it gives us an eternal perspective. We are living in a generation that has the swiftest news-gathering facilities of any period in history. We get news from every part of the world within a few moments after the event. Sometimes the news comes to us while it is still happening.

This is all to the good, because it keeps us alert and informed. However, it involves a peril also. The danger is that our feelings and our mood for the day will be determined each morning by the latest news flash over the radio or TV, or in the headlines of the press.

We need something more stable and enduring, if we are to have solidity of character. This enduring faith is found in the message of the church, which reminds us that we have an everlasting God with whom one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day.

Another reason for believing in the church is the freedom of its pulpit. There is no institution on earth that affords a freer platform than the rostrum of the Christian Church.

I have been a minister of the gospel for 40 years. In all that time no officer or member of my church has ever sought to suppress the liberty of the pulpit. You may think nothing of sufficient consequence was said from the pulpit to justify censorship. However, I have made many radical pronouncements on some of the most debatable issues of the century. My congregations have always respected the preacher's freedom to speak his deepest convictions. God forgive us if in this crucial time we remain silent on issues of such vast and far-reaching importance as war and peace, race relations, temperance, and our political and industrial affairs.

A final reason for believing in the church is that its fellowship is prophetic of what the fellowship of the kingdom of God on earth will be. Especially is this true of the ecumenical movement, as represented by the National and World Councils of Churches.

A Woman Mayor

Good Housekeeping Makes Tourist City

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO (Delayed)—To clean up a city, to provide homes and schools for the people, to stretch the tax dollar, elect a woman mayor! That's what the good people here in this biggest American city of the Caribbean are saying after eight years rule of Dona Felisa Rincon deGautier.

As a week-long guest of this dynamic mother of a city, I had an intimate opportunity to discover how all the talents of a good housekeeper are being utilized to make a bright tourist city out of what was once a dirty, second-rate community of impoverished and discouraged people.

When Dona Felisa (as she is called) was elected, she told her husband, a successful attorney, that she was going to give the city a spring house-cleaning. She didn't buy a big broom to get rid of the litter, rubble and garbage, but she did buy a fleet of 75 trucks to collect all the debris.

"And I need 25 more," she said this spring, because like any thorough housewife, she's never satisfied with the degree of cleanliness and order achieved. Now a tax-mayor might have spent some money for trucks, but few, if any, would get up at 6 o'clock in the morning to patrol the routes to see if the drivers were doing the job right. But Dona Felisa does this periodically, and often chooses Lent as a logical time for a check-up.

Incidentally, she doesn't use the word "garbageman." I heard her tell one of the collectors: "That uniform you wear lets everyone know you are a city employee, so you must not cheat the people... and fail me... by not doing a good clean-up job or by being seen drinking rum in some inn during working hours."

San Juan was once called "one big poorhouse." The Lady Mayor tackled the expensive task of getting a roof over the heads of the low-income folk so successfully that public housing developments went up fast. Then, unexpectedly, some of the people didn't feel at home in these modern quarters and slipped back into their old shacks, much to the dismay of the Mayores.

But she solved that as only a childless mother-mayor could.

She taught the children of these people to desire a modern home, by opening nursery centers for youngsters from two to five years, of working mothers. I visited two of them, and saw little tots being taught how to brush their teeth, to enjoy clean clothes, to eat a well-balanced meal (the only one a day for many) with manners.

When these children go home they teach their parents good living habits, and the demand for those public housing units has mounted, "and now there are not enough," grinned the Mayores.

The criticism that Puerto-Rican Americans aren't taught English isn't true in these nursery schools. I recall one little girl reciting the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag in Spanish and then in English, while she tried with desperate earnestness to remember whether her hand should be over her heart or on her stomach.

Dona Felisa finds ways, (sometimes right out of her own pocket-book) to ease the hardships endured by many of her people. She's a great listener, and if she's convinced, action follows.

The people love her. Entering a public place with her takes half an hour, because so many stop to greet her.

A man-mayor might be a fine host, (as is her friend and political colleague the Governor, Luis Munoz Marin) but only a gifted hostess could give so much pleasure to so many different kinds of people.

In the National Council of Churches we have working happily and cooperatively together 34 denominations of the Protestant and Orthodox churches, representing a constituency of nearly 38 million members.

This does not mean that we are striving for some great totalitarian ecclesiastical system. Such a monolithic structure we wish to avoid. Atop city hall is a spacious apartment where I saw her on various afternoons greet three actresses on a South American tour; a New York Councilman and his party; some Navy officers from a ship in the harbor; and a group of society folk rehearsing for an "Evo-cando el Pasado" (Remembering the Past) dance during carnival week. Another time, at the request of the Governor of the Virgin Islands, she planned a picnic for a group of 35 Negroes at her beach house right on the ocean. Here she sometimes rests.

It was the Governor who told me with pride that Dona Felisa is a great vote-getter. In desperation, the opposition party tried running a woman candidate against her, but even that didn't turn the tide.

One of her great assets is her femininity. She wears her hair in a towering crown of braids, and once in a prankish moment she took my long hair down, right in the drawing room of that city hall apartment during a press party, and piled it high atop my head. Then she added an old-fashioned brooch, a mantilla, and a fan, and the guests said we were look-alikes.

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Looking forward to "Victory Days" as being ahead, a monster parade was held in a rally day Saturday, April 1. A street pageant was presented with schools, clubs and business interests participating in exceptionally large numbers. The event was to instill confidence and progress after the trying days of recent months.

What's in a Banger?

Modern Science Is Stopped Cold By British Sausage

LONDON (AP)—A government spokesman says modern science, which has plumbed the innards of the atom, has been stopped cold by the British sausage.

John Hare, minister of agriculture, told a stunned House of Commons yesterday: "There is no known method of determining the proportions of pork or beef and other meats in a sausage."

British sausages are familiarly known as bangers. This is because when fried they frequently burst, showering bystanders with bits of pork, beef, hot fat, powdered milk, bread filling and the Lord only knows what else.

The persistent mystery of its contents has long distressed even the banger's staunchest admirers. There ought, they said, to be a law.

By 1955 the clamor has reached such a pitch that the government took action. It asked the officially sponsored Food Standards Committee to decide what a banger's insides should consist of, with a view to fixing a legal standard for same.

In May 1956 the committee came forth with its findings. As a starter on standardization, it held that a pork sausage should not contain more than 20 per cent beef, nor a beef sausage more than 20 per cent pork.

Since then, there had been nothing from the government but a long, embarrassed silence. Hare's confession, prompted by a question from Conservative Col. R. B. Glyn of Dorset, explains why.

"I could not agree to establish a standard for sausages that cannot be enforced," said Hare. "There is, therefore, no action which it can take on the committee's report."

Laborite Somerville Hastings expressed hope that scientists may at some future time leave off dissecting the nucleus of deuterium long enough to have another go at the banger.

Cured Cancer Group Opens 1958 Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's first Cured Cancer Congress dramatized with messages of hope today the opening of a 1958 crusade to raise 30 million dollars to combat the disease.

The director of the government's National Cancer Institute, Dr. John R. Heller, said that 700,000 Americans now are being treated for cancer—but 800,000 have had it and been saved.

Heller reported that "we are on the threshold of breakthroughs" in understanding the nature of the disease and finding powerful new drugs to control it.

Of the 800,000 he have been cured, 40 met under sponsorship of the American Cancer Society. They were 9 to 76 years old, from 29 states and the District of Columbia, representing varied occupations and many types of cancer and its treatment.

The program included a reception at the White House by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, honorary chairman of the 1958 cancer crusade, and the lighting of a 30-foot sword of hope in a park on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Dr. Lowell T. Coggeshall of Chicago, president of the cancer society, told the Cured Cancer Congress: "Today there is hope." Those who have been cured, he said, can combat "the deep and paralyzing fear" of cancer.

He said that 20 years have shown great progress in cutting down the death-rate. In 1938, he said, one in every seven cancer victims was saved; now it is one in three. He said the death rate for women has dropped largely because of cures of cancer of the uterus but the rate has gone up for men, mainly because of the 300 per cent increase in deaths from lung cancer.

There was no ignoring of the darker side, Dr. Heller said that whereas 150,000 Americans will be saved from cancer within the next 12 months, about 250,000 will die of it. Yet, he said, there have been "great gains against cancer."

For the first time, he said, a drug, methotrexate, has successfully suppressed a solid tumor. "This," he said, "indeed is a milestone on the long road to conquering cancer."

Bassey Fools Officials With Early Victory

By PATRICK MCNULTY

LOS ANGELES (AP)—World featherweight champion Hogan (Kid) Bassey played an April Fool's joke on his ring counselors—but they liked it just fine today.

"We told him to box—so he knocks the chap out early," said Bassey's manager George Biddies.

The chap was Ricardo (Pajarito) Moreno of Mexico, who had been hailed as the more vicious puncher.

The champion from Nigeria left ringside mouths agape with his savage third-round knockout. It was his first defense of the 126-pound title.

"I fought the first round exactly as I had planned," Moreno sadly explained later through an interpreter. "After that I could do nothing."

"He hit me hard in the first round, so I slugged back," Bassey admitted with a grin. Bassey continued bombing until the Little Bird collapsed like a pressed duck with just a few seconds left in the third.

Moreno took the first step toward groggyland when Bassey, 124, clipped him with a ripping uppercut midway in the second.

"That's when I knew I had him," Bassey said.

Moreno, 124½, was far from through, however, and made a game stand as thousands of his countrymen from south of the border and Los Angeles' large Mexican colony shouted encouragement.

Bassey, also a deft boxer, slipped or blocked most of Moreno's flurries. But he later admitted that even the punches on his arms hurt plenty.

"He's the best puncher I've met," Bassey said.

In the third, Bassey opened with a wild-swinging barrage.

A solid right sent Moreno reeling across the ring.

Bassey followed with two more rights and Moreno did a drunken shuffle-off dance step and collapsed. He was still on his back, but making a feeble effort to rise, when Referee Tommy Hart counted him out.

Bassey collected a guarantee of $70,000 from the Wrigley Field gross gate of $215,047.06. Moreno got $38,000.

The Bassey camp planned to return to England before deciding on any future fights.

Kramer Spikes US Chance To Win Davis Cup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—There's a bright new hope—Jack Kramer and his pro tennis stars to be specific—today to Uncle Sam's chances for winning back the Davis Cup.

James B. Moffett, chairman of the Cup selection committee, said Kramer and his touring foursome—Pancho Gonzales, Pancho Segura, Tony Trabert and Lew Hoad—would tutor amateurs hopeful of making the American team.

The first student will be Barry Barry Mackay, 23-year-old Michigan graduate from Dayton, Ohio, and a member of the 1957 team which lost to Australia 3-2.

Mackay will go to New York this weekend and practice with the pros on their Eastern swing.

The tennis official said Mackay would practice daily with the pros who "being the great players they are, will help him overcome mistakes."

When the tour ends, Mackay is to go to Los Angeles and work under the guidance of Kramer, a former U. S. champion and Davis Cup player.

Moffett emphasized that other pros, those "who not only want to win but who show us they can," will be eligible for the same intensive training when it can be arranged.

He said the players' amateur status will not be jeopardized by the practice with pros.

The United States last won the cup in 1954. Australia has dominated the competition since.

There are 112 pounds in the English hundredweight; 160 pounds in the American hundredweight.

Cards Farm Out Bonus Pitcher Miller

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals farmed out bonus pitcher Bob Miller and three outfielders yesterday.

Joining Miller at the Cards' minor league training camp at Daytona Beach, Fla., were Don Laster, Joe Taylor and Curt Flood.

Miller who signed with the Cardinals for a 125,000 bonus, was optioned out so he could pitch regularly, said Manager Fred Hutchinson. The 19-year-old righthander had been impressive this spring, posting a 2.57 earned run average for seven exhibition innings. Five of those innings were against New York.

Yesterday, St. Louis defeated Boston 4-3. Lindy McDaniel was the winner. He pitched seven innings and allowed only three hits.

Celtics Liked Over Hawks In 3rd Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The favored Boston Celtics and fired-up St. Louis Hawks, even after two games, resume their rivalry tonight in the third game of the National Basketball Assn. championship series.

Both coaches expressed confidence in ultimate victory in the best-of-seven series.

All indications were that the St. Louis-Boston rivalry may grow hotter than ever in the next two games, scheduled for 8:30 p. m. tonight and Saturday night at Kiel Auditorium.

Tonight's game will be on closed-circuit television in the 3,500-seat Kiel Opera House adjoining the auditorium.

The closed-circuit TV set up after both games were sold out, is said by the Hawks to be the first such basketball telecast.

If the defending champion Celtics lost any confidence in a 104-102 defeat by St. Louis in the opener at Boston, they regained it with a smashing 136-112 victory in the second game Sunday.

Red Auerbach, Celtic coach, predicted after the second game his club would come on strongly the rest of the series.

The coach of the Hawks, Alex Hannum, said he was "particularly glad to be even with a Celtic team (Boston owner Walter) Brown said was as strong in the stronger Eastern Division as the Hawks were weak in the weak Western Division."

A slow burn has been developing for months in the Hawk camp over belittling remarks attributed to Brown. The Boston owner repeated the Eastern-Western theme on television after the first game Saturday.

The intense rivalry between the two division titlists took root last year in their title playoff which went seven games, Boston winning the last one in double overtime for the crown.

National AAU Mat Tourney Begins

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three defending champions and two collegiate titleholders head a field of 160 at today's start of the National AAU wrestling championships.

Included in the entries for the four-day, eight-division competition are teams from Japan, the University of Mexico and the Mexican Wrestling Federation.

There will be free style wrestling through Friday and Greco-Roman the final day. Greco-Roman differs from free style in that opponents may not grab each other below the waist.

Defending champions are Terry McCann of Tulsa, Okla., in the 125.5-pound class; Doug Blumhagen of Tulsa, 160.5, and Meb Turner of the New York Athletic Club, 174.

Oklahoma State's Dick Delgado, 115, and Dick Beattie, 160.5, are the NCAA kings.

Dan Hodge, an Oklahoman who now holds the Golden Gloves heavyweight boxing title, will be going after heavyweight wrestling honors.

Hodge held the AAU 175-pound wrestling title from 1953 through 1956.

Bilko Making His Bulk Felt With Redlegs

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

Steve Bilko is making his ponderous presence felt with the Cincinnati Redlegs after 13 seasons in organized baseball.

He had been considered nothing better than a "good hit, no field minor leaguer."

Purchased from Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League last Oct. 8, Bilko (no relation to the sergeant of TV fame) is seeking to win a regular job with the Redlegs. He failed in previous attempts with the St. Louis Cards and Chicago Cubs.

Cincinnati decided to give him a try after he hit 56 homers and drove in 140 runs in the PCL.

Yesterday, the 6-1, 230-pound first baseman slammed two home runs and led the Redlegs to a 9-2 victory over Philadelphia. He ended a scoreless deadlock with a two-run blow in the fourth and repeated the trick in the seventh.

Both homers came off southpaw Curt Simmons.

Minnie Minoso clubbed three homers as the Cleveland Indians outgassed the Chicago Cubs 14-7. Minoso drove in eight runs. Ernie Banks homered twice for the Cubs.

Bill Skowron drove in eight runs with two homers, and a single in the New York Yankees' 15-11 triumph over the White Sox. His grand-slammer off Bob Keegan in the seventh turned the tide.

Eddie Mathews drove in three runs with a pair of doubles and a single and Hank Aaron helped with a home run as Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 7-2.

The Cards ended Boston's eight-game winning streak by defeating the Red Sox 4-3. In other games, Washington edged Los Angeles 7-6, Kansas City trimmed Detroit 4-1 and San Francisco defeated Baltimore 4-1.

In addition to the team's skein, Boston pitcher Dave Sisler's hitless string also went down the drain. He had retired 33 consecutive batters in three games before Wally Moon opened the fifth with a double. The Cards went on to score three times in that frame.

Washington pulled out its victory in the 10th after scoring twice in the previous inning to tie the score. The Senators got the winning run on Albie Pearson's single, a base on balls and an error by Los Angeles shortstop Charley Neal that enabled Pearson to score from second.

Jack Urban held Detroit scoreless for eight innings and the Tigers registered their lone marker in the ninth off A's reliever Tom Gorman. Kansas City got all its runs off Billy Hoelt.

The Giants collected only three safeties, including a homer by rookie Willie Kirkland. Cleveland managed nine safe blows but they were neatly scattered by Allan Worthington, who worked seven innings, and Ramon Monzant.

Makes Difference
Hops impart the characteristic flavor to ale and beer. Ale has a tartar taste than beer because it contains more hops and because of a higher degree of fermentation.

Pompey Meets Rory In Bout Wednesday

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Yolande Pompey, a light heavyweight with his eye on "mixing it up" meets Rory Calhoun, a heavy-fisted middleweight in a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

Observers expect the affair to be a rouser. Some doubt it will last 10 rounds.

Pompey has knocked out 25 of his opponents, and Calhoun 17 of 37.

Pompey has a 34-4-3 record. Calhoun, ranked the No. 6 middleweight, will be 33-3-1 going into the fight.

The match will be televised (ABC) 9 p.m. CST.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Life continues at 40 for relief hurler Marv Grissom of the San Francisco Giants.

"At 40 you can't expect to do what you did at 23," says Grissom, explaining how he continues to be considered the ace fireman of the Giants' staff.

"I decided I wanted to continue playing because I love the game, so I took off 10 pounds during the winter so there would be less strain on my legs. And the Giants have allowed me to get into shape the way I know how to and didn't rush me. I only worked a few innings at first and only this week have I felt I can go and throw all out."

"I've trained myself for the job I have to do and not to go nine innings like the younger fellows do."

Sedalia Youth Wins Fishing Gear Supply

Four crappie scales Monday night set Donnie Barklage up in business for the Spring fishing season.

Donnie, 12, 2109 South Missouri, won enough equipment on the Har-Old Ensley Sportsman's Friend Ford Show from Kansas City to keep him well supplied for a long time.

As the third place winner, he was awarded a Johnson spinning reel, a spinning rod, tackle box, sleeping bag, 12 bass busters, 12 spinning lures, and free transportation to the show, furnished by the Smith Ford Motor Co. of Sedalia.

The question was, "How many scales are there on a 2½ pound crappie?" Donnie's guess was 2-836, which is just four short. There was 2,840 on the fish.

Ford Selects Himself To Win Masters

By WILL GRIMSLEY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—"If I had to pick a man to win the Masters this weekend," said defending champion Doug Ford, "I would say myself."

"I feel just like I did a year ago. I feel my game is jelling at exactly the right time."

Although no man has ever repeated in the Masters Golf Tournament, opening Thursday, Ford is supremely confident.

Ford, from Mahopac, N.Y., is a man of moods, and a spurter. When he is rolling—his game clicking and his spirits high—he is almost unbeatable. Fellow pros rate him the toughest battler in the game.

"I had a miserable winter tour," Ford said. "I couldn't putt. But at San Antonio I felt my touch getting back and at Baton Rouge and New Orleans I knew I was getting back in the groove. Now I feel great."

"If I continue playing the way I am, I feel sure I can win again."

Ford shows the most concern over Sam Snead and the red-hot youngster Ken Venturi.

"If I had to name a man other than myself it would have to be Snead," Ford said. "A darkhorse? I like Dow Finsterwald. He's a fine young golfer, just waiting for a break."

"Venturi, Finsterwald and Arnold are the youngsters who have to be watched. You can never discount Snead. But I still feel good about my chances."

Venturi, only player to win three tournaments this year, had a practice 67 over the 6,850-yard par-72 Augusta National course yesterday and said, "I'm playing so well it scares me. I'm afraid I can't keep it up."

Urban Shuts Out Tigers for Eight

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Jack Urban shut out the Detroit Tigers for eight innings yesterday, and the Kansas City Athletics are breathing a little easier.

The slim righthander, who had the best won-loss record of any rookie pitcher in the American League last season, had been hit hard in two previous outings this spring. But yesterday, Urban had little trouble in checking Detroit on four singles. He fanned two and walked five.

Urban won 7 and lost 4 for the seventh place Athletics last season. His earned run average was 3.35.

Yesterday's victory was the third straight for Kansas City, which has an 11-9 exhibition record.

Habit of Smoking Provides Clue to Man's Personality

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Science at last has done something positive for single girls anxious to pick the right kind of husband.

How can a sincere girl be sure what kind of a personality a man has? It's very simple. All she has to do is find out whether he smokes—and how much.

For a recent scientific study of some Harvard students disclosed an interesting thing about the habit of smoking. It seems to divide the sheep and the goats.

The study showed that heavy smokers have peppy personalities. They are independent, restless, and if there is a war on they want to grab a gun and go right into combat. But this same aggressiveness and independence makes them something of a problem in the home. They have a lot of marital troubles.

Nonsmokers, on the other hand, tend to have porridge personalities, the survey found. They are bland as skim milk and dependable as a time clock. If there is a war they prefer to be the man behind the man at the front. They are more likely to make safe, obedient husbands.

A girl now has a simple guide for picking the kind of mate she wants. All she has to do is artfully open a pack of cigarettes and hand it to the potential victim.

If he draws back with a look of utter horror on his face, she knows that here is a guy who will carry out the garbage for her uncomplainingly all his life. He will probably also hang the living room drapes for her, and perhaps even sew them himself.

If he accepts a cigarette, takes a tentative puff and turns green, she knows about him, too. He will always bring his paycheck home in his mouth, have a peaceful basement hobby, and hold the umbrella over her head when it rains—and let his own head get wet.

But if he snatches the pack, smokes them all himself, then tries to borrow money from her to buy another pack, well—a girl had better beware of this cad. He may become a great boudoir buddy and make a million dollars. But he is just as likely to run away from home and spend most of his million bucks entertaining another girl.

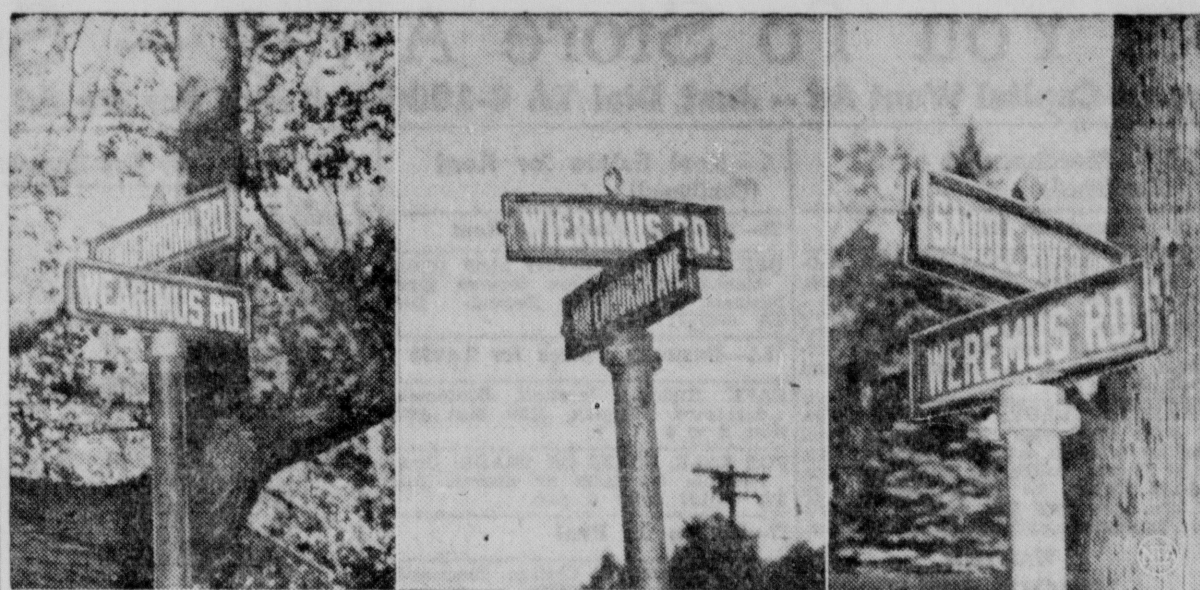

The trouble with the survey is it covers only half the problem—men. What about girls?

What is needed now is to test some Radcliffe or Vassar girls to find out what their attitude toward tobacco shows about their personalities. After all, if science is going to help women find the right kind of husbands, it certainly owes it to men to help them forecast their wives.

In fact, here science ought to be even more thorough, as women are notoriously more adept at hiding their real personalities before marriage.

A few suggested points to cover in the survey:

Is a girl who smokes more likely to give her husband more lunch

THE ROAD'S THE SAME—No matter how they spell it, it's still the same road. But as you proceed along the highway the name changes as it passes through three different New Jersey towns. In Hoboken, left, it's Weremus Rd. In Hillsdale, center, they spell it Wierimus. While at Woodcliff Lake, right, it comes out Weremus Rd.

money than a girl who doesn't? If a girl invariably waits for her escort to light her cigarette, does that mean she will also expect her husband always to help her in and out of her girdle?

If a girl blows smoke rings through her nose, is that a sign she will later demand her husband take her out twice a week instead of once?

If a girl thinks it's gay to take the first few puffs on her boy friend's cigar, does that indicate she will also demand after marriage to go fishing and bowling with her husband?

And what about girls who chew tobacco secretly? Will they be neat housekeepers?

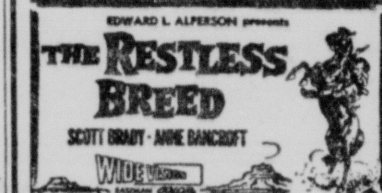

Will a girl who smokes king size cigarettes now demand a king size budget later? These are the questions that cry to science for an answer—and the answers may justify a lot of fearful bachelors.

Woman Gets Divorce From Missing Spouse

CHICAGO (AP)—A 70-year-old Evanston woman figures her husband who left her nearly 25 years ago after 11 years of marriage, doesn't plan to come back.

Mrs. Dorothy Hoover told Superior Judge John A. Sbarbaro she had hoped for husband Jesse's return but now had given up and wanted a divorce. It was granted.

Never Too Old

DENVER (AP)—Mrs. Love C. Day claims a fall on the polished floor at Willis Case Golf Course last year spoiled her golf game. In a District Court suit she asks $25,456 damages for the impairment, claiming she can't approach par like she once could. Mrs. Day is 72.

Uses Tranquilizers On Nervous Cattle

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—They used to use a singing cowboy to settle down nervous cattle. Now they use tranquilizers. More than 200 cattlemen gathered at Texas Tech College here today to hear the results of Tech's feeding experiments. Dr. Wise Burrough of Iowa State University said new tranquilizer drugs are being administered to cattle to calm them down and help them gain weight.

History of TB Treatment Reveals Amazing Progress

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

For centuries tuberculosis has constituted one of the great disease menaces to mankind. This disease is still with us and there are many remaining problems before it can be finally conquered.

About 60 years ago something like 200 people in every 100,000 died each year from tuberculosis. Ten or 12 years ago only some 40 out of each 100,000 died of the disease. Now probably fewer than 12 in every 100,000 perish from tuberculosis each year.

The progress which has been made in the control of tuberculosis is principally the result of better methods of prevention and treatment.

However, the drop in the number of deaths from the disease has not been paralleled by corresponding decrease in the number of new cases discovered.

The disease is caused by a germ, but there are probably many other factors involved in acquiring it.

It is virtually certain, for example, that there are inherited differences in susceptibility to the disease and that temporary depressions in resistance of the body due to poor nutrition and other factors may play a part.

From the standpoint of prevention, the general improvement in diet on the North American Continent and the lessening of extreme poverty have undoubtedly played a part. The generally improved health and lessening of overcrowded living conditions have almost surely been helpful in cutting down the number of new infections.

In the field of treatment, great strides have been made. Improved treatment is largely responsible for the better chances of regaining health when a person is stricken with tuberculosis. The value of bed rest has long been realized. The collapse of a lung by means of injecting air through a needle (thus giving rest to the diseased lung) has repeatedly proved of value.

M. M. asks for some information on the chemical treatment of tuberculosis and says that everything she has read has dealt with treatment before the days of such drugs.

Certainly, chemical treatment has brought virtually revolutionary results. There are several preparations available, including antibiotics and other types of drugs.

Although the exact administration of such substances is highly technical, there is no doubt but that they have brought more rapid conquests of the tuberculosis germ than was usually possible in the past.

Familits Receive Free Welfare Food

HOUSTON, Tex. (P) — Representatives of 44 families received free food from the Harris County Welfare Department yesterday.

It was the first free distribution of food to "employable jobless" since the Depression.

County officials said they expected to continue giving out food at least through April.

Thomas F. Booker, welfare director, said most of those receiving food get unemployment compensation but have been certified as needing additional aid.

Sacred Heart

Seniors Present 'Fraidy Cat' Sunday Night

By Jim Conhig

A large crowd attended the senior class play "Fraidy Cat" Sunday night in the local gymnasium. The three-act farce was one of the funniest plays in the history of Sacred Heart. Members of the cast were the following: Taras Gulay, Phyllis Aggleer, Marie Springer, Ruth Ann Bahner, Leah Gunn, Sue Keller, Mary Louise Vickers, Linda Wiesing, Monte Schreck, Tom Moser, Matt West, ermeier, Ruby Klein, John Buckley, Barbara Mayfield, Lee Roy Freese, David Curry, Joan Shults, and Roseann Mergen. Father Pelletier once again turned out an outstanding job in successfully directing the play.

The various classes are choosing their directors and casts for the intramural play contest May 4. The defending champions, the juniors, will once again try to defend the championship which they won last year as sophomores. The Glee Club, under the direction of Sister M. Everildus, received a superior rating at the Warrensburg Music Contest last Friday. The sextette, composed of Rose Moriarity, Carolyn Saenz, Rita Geiser, Carolyn Wiemholt, Gloria Robb, and Martha Berlin also received a superior rating.

Court Battle Length Rivals Giraffe's Neck

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—A $2,000 giraffe which has cost about $17,000 settled down in his corral today after court battles which rivaled his neck in length.

The 12-foot-tall animal, suitably named Moneybags, was shipped from Kenya, Africa, in September 1956, bound for a Miami commercial zoo.

He was held in quarantine 19 months in Clifton, N.J., while the zoo operator, Jack Pedersen, fought a Department of Agriculture ruling that Moneybags could go only to a zoo under government control.

Pedersen won that battle, and also a ruling that the Department of Agriculture would have to pay the giraffe's $2,100 food bill while in quarantine.

Despite his victories, Pedersen said that attorneys' fees and other expenses came to about $17,000. Moneybags' actual worth is $2,000.

Big Crowd Hears Dr. W. Reed At Public Library

A large crowd turned out last Tuesday evening at the public library to hear Dr. Wallace Reed, so as to prevent toxic or allergic reaction. This year National Correct Posture Week is May 1-7. The National Health Federation chapter of Sedalia voted to sponsor and conduct a program of good posture in the Sedalia Schools during the first week of May. Ernst Benz, chairman of the committee for Correct Posture Week, announced that effort is being made to contact the high school principals in the Sedalia area urging them to have their students participate in the statewide health educational "Correct Posture Week".

A boy and a girl with the best posture from each high school will be chosen by the student body. The final winners of the schools will be chosen by the committee on the basis of an X-ray of the spine to represent Sedalia in the State Posture Contest. One boy and one girl will be selected to represent Sedalia in the State Posture Contest. A $25 bond will be given to the winners of Sedalia for the best posture. Dr. J. W. Bryden has agreed to X-ray the winners of each school free of charge. Benz said the boys and girls will be judged on standing, sitting, and walking. During National Correct Posture Week the committee will try to explain to the students how to walk, stand, sit and lie for the best effect on health; also the ill effects of poor posture.
